WHAT HAPPENS NEXT FOR SAT® TEST-TAKERS

Congratulations on qualifying for the 2013 Northwestern University's Midwest Academic Talent Search (NUMATS)! NUMATS has received your completed registration and fee payment and has forwarded your information to the testing agency.

What Students Should Know and Do

- Read the following booklets thoroughly as they are designed to help you prepare and study for the test: Getting Ready for the SAT and The 2013 Student Guide: Participating in NUMATS (available in the NUMATS Info section of your personal, online NUMATS Toolbox account at <http://toolbox.ctd.northwestern.edu>).
- You will also receive an Admission Ticket in the mail from SAT (see below).
- Arrive at your assigned test center by 7:45 a.m. The test will be over at approximately 1:00 p.m. There are three five-minute breaks. Bring a snack and a drink. Food or drink will not be allowed during testing but may be consumed during breaks.
- Bring the completed SAT Student Identification Form (back of this document) and your Admission Ticket (sent by SAT at least a week before the test) with you to the test.
- Bring two No. 2 sharpened pencils with erasers.
- Bring an acceptable calculator (see pages 11-12 of Getting Ready for the SAT for information on calculators).

Admission Ticket

- You should receive your SAT Admission Ticket at least a week before the scheduled test date. If you do not receive it, or you lose your ticket, call SAT at 866/756-7346.

YOU MUST HAVE YOUR ADMISSION TICKET AND STUDENT IDENTIFICATION FORM (SEE REVERSE SIDE) IN ORDER TO BE ADMITTED TO THE TEST. YOU WILL NOT BE ADMITTED WITHOUT THEM.

- Check your ticket to see where you have been assigned to take the test. If any personal information is incorrect, contact SAT Customer Service immediately at 866/756-7346. Changes to your information must be made, and a new Admission Ticket printed, well before test day. You should also report the incorrect information to NUMATS by calling 847/491-3782 extension 3.
- If you are unable to test on your scheduled test date due to academic or personal conflicts, you may reschedule with SAT for a later test date by calling 866/756-7346 as soon as possible but no later than the late registration deadline for the rescheduled test date.

What Parents Should Know and Do

- Complete and sign the SAT Student Identification Form (back of this document). Keep this document in a safe place so your child can take it to the assigned test center along with his/her SAT Admission Ticket. Your child will not be admitted to the test center without these two items.
- Encourage your child to read The 2013 Student Guide: Participating in NUMATS and take the practice test in the booklet Getting Ready for the SAT.
- Parents are not allowed in the testing rooms, and there will not be provisions for a waiting area.
- Allow four to six weeks after the test to receive the score report, which will be sent directly to your home address by SAT. The scores will also be sent to NUMATS.
- Your child's scores and follow-up interpretive material will be available on your personal, online NUMATS Toolbox account at <http://toolbox.ctd.northwestern.edu> shortly after scores are received. In addition, certificates and scores will be sent to your child's school coordinator if you provided the school name or NUMATS ID number when you registered for NUMATS.
