

The Charlotte Lennon Memorial Scholarship

Charlotte Lennon was a graduate of Resurrection College Prep High School class of 1978. She died in a car accident at the age of 21. This scholarship is dedicated in her memory. She was a funny, outgoing, and passionate person. She really enjoyed participating in athletics while at Resurrection and maintained a healthy and active lifestyle for the remainder of her life.

The Charlotte Lennon Memorial Scholarship was established by Charlotte's family so they could help young women further their education.
