

The Dr. Carrie Jaworski Leadership Scholarship

This scholarship was established through the generosity of Carrie Hall Jaworski '88 in order to recognize a student who shares her leadership abilities within the community. Dr. Jaworski is the Director of the Division of Primary Care Sports Medicine at NorthShore University Health System and is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Family Medicine at the University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine. She previously served for four years as the Head Team Physician and Director of Intercollegiate Sports Medicine at Northwestern University where she was one of only a few women Head Team Physicians at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to taking that position, Dr. Jaworski established the Sports Medicine Center at Resurrection Medical Center, where she often hosted Res students during their Practicum, and served as the school's volunteer team physician. She believes the leadership opportunities at Resurrection College Prep provided to her as a young woman were instrumental in her future successes. For that reason, she wants to help other young women reach their potential as well.
