

The Mark Teach Scholarship

The Mark Teach Scholarship is named for the son of Gordon and Mary Teach. Gordon Teach was a friend of the Sisters of the Resurrection for over 35 years, beginning when he first served as trustee for Resurrection Health Care. Highly impressed with the various functions that he attended at Resurrection College Prep High School over the years, he felt inspired to help with the Sisters' mission of educating young women. The hard work of the Sisters played a large part in Mr. Teach's decision to establish a scholarship. The scholarship is named in honor of his son, Mark, who died in infancy.
