

The Tori Neumann Scholarship

The Tori Neumann Scholarship was established in memory of Victoria Neumann, a graduate of Resurrection College Prep High School Class of 2014. In her junior year, Tori was diagnosed with rhabdomyosarcoma (muscle cancer).

Throughout her months of cancer treatments, Tori had a strong commitment to her academics and displayed a great sense of humor and a determined, winning attitude. Tori was an unselfish, true friend and an example to all of courage and tenacity. In the spirit of Bandit Pride, she was a proud team member of the Resurrection College Prep Bowling Team.

The Tori Neumann Scholarship was established by Tori's friends and family in memory of her remarkable courage, faith and Resurrection spirit. This annual scholarship recognizes students who are facing a personal challenge with the inner strength, faith, courage and tenacity that Tori maintained during her battle with cancer.
