

Dear Parents and Families,

Welcome to the Brookfield School. Our school offers a very safe, pleasant and productive atmosphere for learning.

The school staff shares a common spirit of providing opportunities for learning in a caring environment. Teachers have a genuine interest and regard for their students. Academic achievement is emphasized along with positive social and emotional growth. Continuous professional development enables the teachers to remain on the cutting edge of educational research. This is evident in all areas of the school curriculum.

The staff and I recognize the importance of parent involvement as an ingredient for the success of our elementary program. The Parent Teacher Organization is very active and provides the children with educational and cultural events throughout the year. We encourage all parents to participate in the P.T.O. which meets regularly once a month. Check our Facebook page for the schedule.

You and your child will benefit greatly from your involvement at school. Our cooperative efforts will provide and enhance a successful school experience.

Sincerely,
