

Dear Kennedy Families,

We at the Kennedy School believe that every child entrusted to us is a unique and worthwhile individual to be respected and provided with the best educational services in a nurturing and caring environment. We also believe in the unity of home and school. Mutual respect, open communication, understanding and cooperation are all vital in creating the Kennedy School community of learners.

Meeting the individual needs of all our students is our constant focus. In order to accomplish this, the teachers of Kennedy School consistently provide a variety of learning experiences in the classroom. The use of varied, effective teaching strategies allow teachers to meet the diverse learning styles of the students in their care.

I share with my staff a feeling of academic excitement and a complete commitment to excellence. Our standards and expectations for ourselves and our students are high. It is for this reason that we insist that learning be continuous, cooperative and joy filled! I invite you to visit the Kennedy School and be a part of this learning process! I welcome any suggestions you may have.

Sincerely,
Brian P. Rogan
