The Winter Ride Program is an 8-week ski and snowboard program for middle and high school students. Winter Ride is a great way to learn how to ski/snowboard, practice your skills and have fun with friends. The program provides discounted lift tickets, lesson and rental fees. The program will be providing supervision and transportation to and from the mountain. Please contact Mr. Weathers with any questions.

Semester Two Schedules and Schedule Changes
Semester Two Schedules. Students may access their semester two schedules online in Skyward when they access their grades. Please note that students will not be receiving a paper version of their schedules when the new semester begins. We ask that students review their schedules and make changes, if necessary, before second semester begins.

Mentors make a difference!

Mentors help students during their school years while building for life beyond graduation.

Nooksack Valley Schools are looking for volunteer Connect Mentors at the Middle and High School.

Mentors meet weekly with a student to build a supportive relationship. No experience necessary.

For more information or an application packet contact:
