

Title I, Part A School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy

This policy describes the means for carrying out designated Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements pursuant to ESSA Section 1116(c).

To involve parents in the Title I, Part A programs, the following practices have been established:

Parents, guardians, and community members, with the help of Lancaster High School staff both certificated and classified will create a draft of the Parental Involvement Policy.
The School Site Council will update and approve the Parental Involvement Policy.
Board approval

The school convenes an annual meeting to inform parents about Title I, Part A requirements and about the right of parents to be involved in the Title I, Part A program (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]).

The school offers a flexible number of meetings for Title I, Part A parents, such as meetings in the morning or evening (ESSA Section 1116[c][2]).

Lancaster High School will convene an annual meeting to inform parents of the following:

- description of Title I
- how their student's school participates in Title I
- parental rights to be involved (e.g. teachers qualifications, supplemental services, and school of choice provisions)
- the parents will be notified of the meeting via all available vehicles of communication

The school involves parents of Title I, Part A students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's Title I, Part A programs and the Title I, Part A parent involvement policy (ESSA Section 1116[c][3]).

- Parents, guardians, and community members, with the help of Lancaster High School staff both certificated and classified will create a draft of the Parental Involvement Policy.
- The School Site Council will update and approve the Parental Involvement Policy.
- Board approval

The school provides parents of Title I, Part A students with timely information about Title I, Part A programs (ESSA Section 1116c[A]).
