Reading Tip of the Month

It's time to take out those delicious autumn recipes and cook with your child. Have your child read aloud the different parts of a recipe including the list of ingredients and the step-by-step instructions. This will help your child to develop vocabulary and build fluency.

On the Road to Reading Success

We kicked off our reading support classes by setting our own personal reading goals. Our goals focus on using strategies to check for understanding during reading.

Some of the reading strategies we are learning to use and the goals we have chosen include the following:

- I can stop and retell after each page.
- I can stop and reread when something doesn't make sense.
- I can stop and ask questions as I read.
- I can make predictions, and confirm or change predictions as I read.

When reading with your child at home, ask your child to share the strategy she or he uses to help monitor the understanding of text.
