

After School Fiber Arts Class

4th - 8th Grades

Instructor: Rebecca Ott

Learn about the fundamentals of fiber art, from how fabric is made to how patterns are built. This hands-on class will explore techniques such as weaving, hand embroidery, fabric dyeing, fabric printing, crochet and more. Delve into these meditative and creative processes while building your own unique works of art.

The class will be taught by Rebecca Ott who has a BA in Painting and Drawing and an MFA in Fiber and Material Studies. She has taught art for four years and is currently the Early Childhood Art Teacher at St. George's; she also enjoyed teaching the 7th grade TAG creative arts class this fall.
