Merry Christmas

I chose Christopher for my Confirmation name. I liked the legend of St. Christopher carrying the Christ child to safety across a river. I later discovered that a group of Scholars discovered that there was not enough evidence to support that St. Christopher, St. George and some others were actual people. Luckily, the church still supports those Christian names since there have been so many Christophers and Georges in our history.

You may be asking what this has to do with Christmas. Christopher means Christ bear. This Christmas, my prayer is that each of us will bear Christ more fully into our lives by imitating his loving actions and words in our daily lives. May the joy and the peace and the love of Christmas reign in your lives, in your homes and in your hearts.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Live Jesus!
