

Woodbury Earth Day will be here again before we know it! Please mark your calendars for Saturday May 2, 2020 from 11 AM to 4 PM at Hollow Park in Woodbury for the largest Earth Day celebration in Connecticut!

Just in time for the new year, vendor applications are now available. As always, please be sure to review the vendor information packet before completing your application.

What sort of vendors will we be looking for?

- Municipal, State, Federal Agencies & Affiliates
- Public Schools & Affiliates
- Nonprofit Organizations
- Commercial Business
- Food Trucks & Concessions

In the spirit of Earth Day, we are looking for vendors and exhibitors whose products, missions and services support sustainable living, such as: environmental organizations; animal welfare groups, artisans, farmers and growers, alternative energy companies, alternative modes of transportation, outdoor recreation, holistic wellness, local foods and more.

Want to help plan this year's event?

- Please contact us if you are interested in joining the steering committee to find out more about the talents we are seeking.

We hope you are as excited as we are about this opportunity. For additional information about the event, click here. If you have any questions, please call 203-263-0076 or email earthday@pomperaug.org.