

Creative Writing Workshop

FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS GRADES 5-8

Instructor: Mr. Bill Reich

Do you have a story to tell or a poem to share?

- Even those who like to write may sometimes feel reluctant and threatened by a blank piece of paper in spite of feeling motivated to write stories, poems or even screenplays.
- However, with some inspiration and fun activities, writers who are intimidated by or reluctant to engage in the writing process can gain confidence and gain the skills to enjoy expressing themselves through their own creative expressions of the written word.
- Students will participate in activities that they can use as transferable building blocks in their writing and creative skills.

Class Meetings: First meeting on Tuesday, January 28th, with 8-10 total weekly meetings; workshops will be held from 3:45 - 4:30 p.m.

Cost: $100

To Register: Email Donna Jimerson at donna.jimerson@stgnola.org