3. Principal Report:
 - Update on Student Success: internal process; “referred internally; “ Monthly meetings with mentors involve a framework of questions developed from the Core Values (formerly pillars)
 - LS vs. Moeller football game will be aired on local channel WSTR –TV (Star 64)
 - Mr. Marshall is looking at offering “food after school.” Aramark is putting together proposal(s) to address this.
 - La Salle HS is in the midst of a cultural paradigm shift. Emily Buckley (Marketing and Public Relations) has been hard at work posting things to social media (FB, Instagram, Twitter). As ambassadors for La Salle, please share, “like,” re-tweet etc. Anything and everything to promote the positive happenings at La Salle!
 - Innovation Lab soon to be up and running! Kelly Flerlage gave a brief overview of the lab, and enlightened us on apples, bananas, Raspberry Pi, and BattleBots! LPC shout out to Kelly also for helping at the Band Invitational this past Saturday!!
4. Special Project update – LPC closet:
 - Terri, Kisha, and Kathleen cleaned out and organized the LPC closet on a Saturday morning in September.
 - Mike was given the long-lost LPC gavel (thank goodness!)
 - Terri made note of a few important items that affect the committee as a whole:
 1. Needs: Clorox wipes, Ziploc bags
 2. Ground rules:
 - *If you take it, put it back where it came from (i.e. same shelf, etc.)
 - *Craft Fair supplies are to be kept separate from LPC General
 - *Key can be obtained from our fearless leader (Mike Roman).

3. Inventory:

*No napkins will be needed for quite a while; use open napkins first, please.

*No cups will be needed – there are plenty of Styrofoam as well as plastic.

*No plastic-ware needed (maybe forks)

*Extra red plastic rounders there (Senior Picnic)

4. Other Info:

*Reference Binders exist from former events. These are in the closet on the marked shelf.

*Mike is not sole owner of floppy disk.

Hurricane candle holders?? Use or donate to Camelot auction?
