HMS Featured Staff

Mrs. Monroe

Shukura Monroe is the school psychologist at Haverford Middle School. She has been with the district for 13 years, starting as an intern and now serving as the psychology department chairperson and serving on various committees. Shukura was born and raised in Philadelphia, but is now a Delco resident. She is married and has a 9-year-old son. Shukura attained her undergraduate degree from Hampton University. She then attained her Masters of Education degree in School Psychology from Temple University, while working as a child psychotherapist and behavioral health supervisor at a mental health agency. She finished her school psychology requirements and was certified through Immaculata University in 2007. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, finding new restaurants to visit, watching cooking or singing competition shows, and reading (when she finds time). In addition to evaluating and advocating for children, she strives to help create a welcoming and accepting school climate for all HMS students, staff, and families.
