

About Archbishop Riordan High School

Archbishop Riordan High School is an urban Catholic high school for boys, owned by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco and conducted by the Society of Mary, the Marianists, who are assisted by lay men and women. Archbishop Riordan prepares young men of San Francisco, the surrounding communities and various countries from around the world for leadership through its inclusive college preparatory curriculum. Archbishop Riordan fosters development in faith, character, academics, the arts and athletics, in a diverse and inclusive family environment.

Position: Engineering Department Chair

Archbishop Riordan High School is looking for an experienced educator to chair the Engineering Program for the 2020-2021 school year.
