Vision 2020 for the Shelton Community

The recent Thanksgiving holidays inspired me to reflect on Shelton's state of the union, or, rather, the state of the Shelton community at this, our 44th year. Our Grandparents' Day, held November 22nd, put everything in perspective, as 1,500 grandparents gathered in our gym for our favorite day of the year. Starting with our program, we witnessed a snapshot of everything good about the Shelton community.

Art: Sydney Dovidias, Gr. 11

Art: Katie Edmisten, Gr. 11

The Color Guard presented the American flag. Choir members led attendees in our national anthem. Numerous student groups performed and showcased their talents, reminding us of their many individual and collective gifts. Our students were excited to show their family members what it means to have Shelton Pride. Featured speaker Julia Genovese, a Shelton senior, shared what Shelton has meant to her. Her words rang true with confidence, maturity and gratitude. Visits to the classroom gave grandparents the opportunity to see at a glance what transpires in the classroom every day under the guidance of amazing faculty and staff. You could feel an energized community coming together at one moment in time.

This is the last year for us to occupy a building we call Shelton's Ward Campus at 15720 Hillcrest Road. It was named in honor of Bill and Cindy Ward, whose support for some 30 years has made our current space a wonderful home to Shelton. Bill, our board president from 1995 to 2002, died this past April. His wife Cindy and daughter Katy were present May 17th, 2019 at the groundbreaking ceremony for our new campus to be located at 17301 Preston Road.

Our community is not defined by the building or the physical space—the spirit of Shelton is about building relationships between people and helping people achieve their potential. That said, this year is different, and we do recognize the importance of place and space as we plan for our new vision, a vision we're calling 2020. Our new space, formerly a building that housed an insurance company's headquarters, will now house a school that can offer more as we transform the lives of our students. Our space will also allow us to serve many others through our Evaluation Center, our Speech Language Hearing Program, and our Outreach and Training Program.

We moved the space of Shelton from strip shopping centers, to our Lovers Lane Campus, to our Swift Campus, and to our Ward Campus. I believe Bill Ward would have loved to have held a shovel at our groundbreaking ceremony. He was excited for us as we move to a new space. Bill was not afraid of change, and he would have embraced the new vision we can better realize at a unified campus.

I am filled with gratitude as I think of the people who define our Shelton community—board, faculty and staff, family, friends, students, donors, foundations, alumni and volunteers. Our thanks also go to architects, engineers and builders who can breathe Shelton spirit into a space.

We leave the old year and enter the new one with an attitude of gratitude and a vision for 2020. I can't wait to see what amazing things our students do in our new place and space. Just about anything is possible. For more information about our new campus, please visit our website: www.shelton.org/new-campus

Gratitude from Our Students

Thank you, Shelton, for bringing me out of my shell, boosting my self-esteem and giving me the opportunity for a brighter future.

Julia Genovese, Class of 2020

The first thing I noticed about when entering Shelton is that I fit in.

I am thankful for Shelton because I do not have to miss classes for help with my dyslexia.

I am thankful for Shelton because I couldn't learn at my old school.

DEVELOPMENT DOINGS

Supporting Shelton—The Future is Ours—Engage, Enrich, Empower

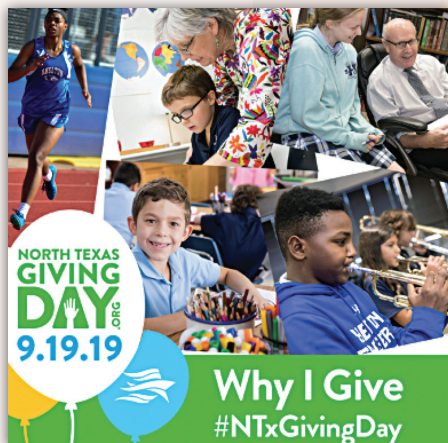

It should come as no surprise to anyone in our Shelton community that this year is one full of anticipation. The Future is Ours, and we are excited for our successful students, great teachers, involved parents and, of course, the move to our future campus. All of this has been made possible by the commitment and generosity of our Shelton community.

- Shelton started the year with 929 students from 100 different zip codes. The Class of 2019 welcomed 77 seniors, one of which was named a Commended Student in the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program, only the fourth Shelton student ever to achieve this accomplishment.
- Our Theatre Arts department participated in a two-day master class with acclaimed director Rod Caspers. They wrapped up October with a performance of Meet Me In St. Louis and welcomed Sandy Duncan as a guest speaker in November.
- Middle School students took a moment for Veterans Day to honor friends and family who have served our country. Each veteran's name was included among a collection of stars found in the school's hallway.
- Shelton athletics are underway with the women's basketball team remaining undefeated and the Charger football team earning a spot in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year.

Your support, both financial and through participation, has and will continue to help us carry these experiences and traditions to our new campus. Each of you plays a role in engaging, enriching and empowering our Shelton students, and we are ever grateful for our supporters who believe in what we do and in what our students can accomplish.

North Texas Giving Day - September 19, 2019

Thanks to all our donors who supported Shelton on North Texas Giving Day. The event, sponsored by the Communities Foundation of Texas, was a wonderful way to kick off our 2019-2020 Annual Fund Drive—The Future is Ours. This year, 288 donors generously contributed $130K to support Shelton. We are grateful for all who helped make this possible. All proceeds donated on NTGD will support Shelton's Annual Fund Drive, which benefits 100% of our students.

By now, you have received information on this year's Annual Fund, "The Future is Ours." The Annual Fund helps shape our students' future by focusing on what makes Shelton special today.

Your gift is the first and most important way you can support Shelton. In fact, 100 percent of your Annual Fund gift directly impacts today's students to support:

- Excellent Faculty who teach the way our students learn
- Small Class Sizes of 6:1 student to teacher ratio
- Amazing Opportunities for students in fine arts, competitive athletic programs and a variety of student clubs
- Specialized Educational Programs tailored for every student
- Tuition Assistance for qualified students
- Professional Development opportunities for faculty

As we move into the future, we encourage you to consider the opportunities you can provide Shelton students and how you can help them make the future theirs. Our success is made possible through the generous support of our Shelton community. We know you have many philanthropic choices, and thank you for all that you do to make a difference for each and every Shelton student.

Truly, The Future is Ours—thank you for being part of our community and for helping us continue our mission.

2019 Stampede Auction Rocked—Shelton Stars Shine Bright

Congratulations and special thanks to our Shelton Parents' Association (SPA) and Auction Co-Chairs Dina Brantman and Lisa Harrigan for hosting an amazing Stampede Auction on March 30, 2019. Over 500 people attended the gala auction event at The Bomb Factory. The event featured Live and Big Board auctions, seated dinner and entertainment provided by the Ultimate Garth Brooks Tribute Band featuring Shawn Gerhard. Proceeds are being used to enrich our students' experiences in many important areas including Fine Arts, Visual Arts, Music, Athletics, Scholarships and extracurricular programs. Thanks to everyone who helped make this night one to remember—our supporters, volunteers and members of our community.

and specialized training for our staff. Since tuition only covers 85% of the actual cost of educating each student, support of the Annual Fund is critical to Shelton's financial well-being. Gifts to the Annual Fund provide vital income to balance Shelton's operating budget and help bridge the gap between tuition revenue and the actual cost of operating the school. It is the cornerstone of all our fundraising efforts.

From curriculum and technology to fine art and athletics, the Annual Fund supports every student every day. We ask that each family joins us in supporting our goal and showing your support of Shelton. Together we can reach our goal of $900,000 and 100% participation! No gift is too small, and all gifts are tax-deductible.

What better way to acknowledge the impact Shelton has had on our students' lives than to have every family support the Annual Fund! At Shelton, The Future is Ours—please make your gift today!

Parents present school with a generous check

Thank You, Shelton Parents' Association

We gratefully acknowledge and thank our SPA for its generosity and support of Shelton. During the 2018-19 school year, the SPA made a gift allocation of $568K that will be used to enrich our students' Shelton experiences.

Special Thanks to Our Shelton Community

It is with deep gratitude that we thank our entire community for its support of Shelton: Board members, loyal supporters, dedicated volunteers, faculty and staff who helped the Development Office in so many important ways. We especially acknowledge our Board members for their leadership:

Gary Webb and Win Bell; 2018-19 SPA Co-Presidents Darcy Preheim and Jessica Slaven; 2018-19 Annual Fund Co-Chairs, Jennifer Dix and Holly Vitullo; and our Auction Co-Chairs, Dina Brantman and Lisa Harrigan.

OUTREACH OFFERINGS

Christine Bedenbaugh, MAE, LDT, CALT, QI, Director Shelton Outreach/Training

This past year has been a rewarding one for the Outreach Department. House Bill 3 provides funding for public school children with dyslexia in the state of Texas. State funding has allowed several school districts to provide training that leads to certification for dyslexia specialists. Shelton offers three accredited teacher training courses for educators serving students with dyslexia:

- 1) Shelton Academic Language Approach (SALA), directed by Chris Bedenbaugh
- 2) Shelton Academic Reading Approach (SARA), directed by Nancy Coffman
- 3) Sequential English Education (SEE), directed by Joyce Pickering

Each is accredited by the International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council (IMSLEC). The three courses train teachers to become dyslexia specialists at both the Practitioner/Teaching and Therapy Levels. Graduates qualify to sit for the ALTA Competency Exam and, upon passing, can become certified at the Practitioner and Therapy Levels. Certified Academic Language Therapists (CALTs) holding master's degrees may become Licensed Dyslexia Therapists (LDTs) in the state of Texas. The Outreach Department is proud to announce that 85 teachers were trained this year in Texas, 25 in Arkansas, 55 in Alabama and one in Tennessee. Teachers who attend our courses through the Therapy Level can earn all but six credit hours toward a 30-credit hour Master of Arts degree in Multisensory Education through Dallas Baptist University (DBU). Shelton School is being recognized by DBU for its partnership with the College of Education through which the 85 earned master's degrees (see page 31).

This year, we partnered with Quantitative Research Evaluation & Measurement (QREM) to do an impacts study on teachers trained through our MSLE courses. Didi Fahey, President of QREM, stated in Shelton's 2018 Impacts Study, "Of the 218 teachers trained, nearly half were serving in various capacities within their schools. They were engaged with professional development for other teachers in their buildings and districts. As teachers trained by Shelton themselves often train, mentor, or guide other teachers, the reach of Shelton training extends well beyond the number of teachers who actually attended Shelton courses. Because each teacher mentors, directs, or guides an average of 8.3 other teachers and each year instructs an average of 139 students, the full reach of Shelton approaches over one million students per year."

As Director of SALA, I continued to enjoy training teachers in Keller ISD at the Teaching and Therapy Levels. A Therapy Level training was offered this summer, on site, to five teachers from Irving, five teachers from Keller and three teachers from Midlothian, Dallas and Plano ISDs. Three new Teaching Level cohorts were formed that included nine teachers in Lancaster, 13 in Midlothian, and seven in White Settlement ISDs.

This year I particularly enjoyed serving the Alliance for Accreditation and Certification of Dyslexia Specialists as co-chair of its inaugural conference in Charlotte, NC in September 2019, which hosted 150 attendees.

Chris Bedenbaugh (center) with Alliance Conference attendees

Nancy Coffman (third L) in San Francisco with Northern California Branch, IDA

Nancy Coffman, Director of SARA, continues to train teachers in Alabama, Arkansas, and Texas. This year she presented reading workshops in Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, North Carolina, California, Utah, and Texas. G-g Shryer continued as the instructor for the summer Teaching Level course. A Teaching Level course and a course for CALTs - "Utilizing the Take Flight Curriculum"—were conducted by G-g and Nancy during the summer. We are pleased to announce that Lisa Tyler, Shelton Middle School Assistant Head, completed Qualified Instructor Training and will assist in future teacher trainings.

G-g Shryer with summer trainee

For an overview of what Dr. Joyce Pickering, Shelton Executive Director Emerita and Director of SEE, has accomplished this year, please see page 5.

Dr. Laure Ames, Director of Shelton's Evaluation Center (see page 8), taught two sections of Diagnosing Learning Different Children: Referral and Testing, a required five-day course for SEE, SARA, and SALA Therapy Level teachers in training, and two sections of the one-day Screening for Dyslexia workshop.

Outreach offers six workshops annually to new Shelton parents, all of which are open to the public free of charge. Teachers may also attend and earn continuing education units (CEUs). Topics include:

- Overview of Learning Differences
- Simulations of Learning Differences
- Social Skills / Organization and Study Skills
- Oral and Written Language: Decoding, Spelling, Comprehension and Composition
- Freedom from Chemical Dependency
- Math, Science and Social Studies

SHELTON OUTREACH IS EVERYWHERE

Joyce S. Pickering, Hum.D., Shelton Executive Director Emerita

Services from the office of the Executive Director Emerita include the work of Dr. Joyce Pickering, who directs both Multisensory Structured Language Education (MSLE) in Sequential English Education (SEE) and Shelton Montessori Training (SMT) at the Early Childhood, Elementary I and II Levels. She also provides many professional development workshops for schools across the country.

Supervisory staff from this office include Gulzar Babool and John Hodges. Pam Brockway and Danyle Duke manage appointments, travel and record-keeping of all of the presentations and training done by this staff. John Hodges coordinates the Shelton Scholars program, is co-coordinator, with Dr. Pickering, of the SEE training program and presents the Overview of Learning Differences to many schools and districts in the metroplex. John also supervises a Saturday Scholars program at Wesley-Rankin Community Center in West Dallas. Amy Kelton, head of Shelton's Upper Elementary division, and Joyce Pickering provide training and make presentations in the U.S. and internationally.

MSLE-SEE Training

In June 2019 five individuals attended SEE Teaching Level and four attended the Therapy Level Training that was given on Shelton's campus. In September seven individuals attended the Teaching Level training. Saturday trainings continue for Teaching and Therapy Levels.

Literacy Instruction for Texas (LIFT) uses the new adult literacy version of the SEE multisensory structured language program. The SEE training will continue at Brighton School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana which has become a satellite training site.

Shelton Montessori Training

Gulzar Babool co-directs the Shelton Montessori Training (SMT) courses with Dr. Pickering. This year they have added Montessori Administrator Courses and the Montessori Inclusion Endorsement (MIE) from American Montessori Society (AMS).

Gulzar Babool with Dealey Montessori Vanguard and International trainees

Gulzar and Joyce have visited Montessori schools in which Shelton is training teachers, including schools in Dallas ISD, Garland ISD and Fort Worth ISD, as well as many private Montessori schools. Gulzar regularly visits and observes the trainees in the Elementary program. Cathy Luby is the Field Supervisor for the Early Childhood trainees. There are 115 trainees presently doing coursework and/or practicum. There are 29 in the Early Childhood course, 58 in the Elementary I course, 18 in Elementary II course, six in Administrator course and four in the AMS Inclusion Endorsement course.

Marija Roberson has joined SMT as the Montessori E-Learning Technology Assistant. She will be producing several online courses and supporting SMT's expanding program.

SMT hosted the Back to School Conference for the Institute of Montessori Education in October at Shelton, with more than 120 attendees. Joyce Pickering was honored as one of several leaders of Montessori Education.

Several presentations will be made by Shelton staff at the AMS Annual Conference in Dallas in March 2020. Over 100 conference attendees will tour Shelton School for a pre-conference workshop.

Marija Roberson

MACAR

Montessori for Children at Risk for Learning Differences (MACAR) has been presented to 46 trainees this year in Dallas and Sacramento, CA, with a course planned in Shanghai, China in February.

Short-term Workshops

Various short-term workshops have been presented to schools as professional development for their teachers to help students with learning differences. Shelton instructors have presented locally as well as in Boulder, CO and Arlington, VA.

Shelton Outreach continues to serve students and teachers in the Dallas area and to provide information and training nationally and internationally in the unique Shelton Way.

The mission of the Speech, Language, Hearing Program has long been to serve students and families, at Shelton and in the community alike, by providing thorough and informative screens, comprehensive speech and language evaluations, and, of course, speech therapy services of the highest quality. We could never begin to fulfill this mission without our team of experienced and caring clinicians. We are thankful for the opportunity to provide support to each student with unique learning needs. Our greatest goal is to help our clients realize success by giving them the tools to better communication.

"Shelton's Speech and Language screenings provide valuable insight to our school and parents, as we work together to help students reach their full potential."

Screening Program

Our Speech, Language, Reading, Hearing and Vision screening program is one component that is vital to fulfilling our mission. Early intervention is critical, not only for closing language learning gaps and providing a stable foundation upon which to build future language, but also for avoiding frustration and allowing a child to maintain self-esteem and confidence in his or her ability to communicate. Through the screening process, the Shelton Speech Program provides invaluable assistance to parents and educators by identifying young children with speech, language and reading delays. From individual conferences and professionally written results to recommendations for intervention, our therapists go alongside parents and teachers to support their children in a way that is unique to Shelton. For these reasons, we believe the Shelton Speech Program is the gold standard in the Dallas area for speech, language, and reading screenings.

Schools for whom we provide screenings:

The Hockaday School	Trinity Christian Academy
Parish Episcopal School	Greenhill School
Episcopal School of Dallas	Stringfellow School
Pebblecreek Montessori	St. Andrew United Methodist Preschool
A Child's Garden Montessori	Meadowbrook School
Guthrie School	Arbor Creek Montessori
The DaVinci School	First United Methodist Church Open Door Preschool
Plano Preschool

Screenings begin in August and usually conclude in November. Upon conclusion each year, the Shelton Speech Program has screened approximately 1,200 children.

Therapy Services

The Speech Program therapists complete approximately 125 therapy sessions each and every week. We provide private speech, language, reading and social communication therapy not only to Shelton students, Early Childhood to high school, but to students in private schools across the metroplex, including Hockaday, Greenhill, Parish Episcopal, Episcopal of Dallas, Lamplighter School, St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic, Meadowbrook and Dallas International School. In addition, many community clients are seen on Shelton's campus. Therapy is provided for receptive and expressive language, articulation, language and auditory processing, phonological awareness and reading difficulties, reading comprehension, and social language. In addition, several of our therapists are trained in the multisensory reading methods that are used so successfully by Shelton School. Therapy is available year-round, Monday through Thursday, 7:30 am to 5:30 pm.

Another important part of our work with students is our Social Communication program to those students with social cognition challenges. Our therapists have received specialized social cognition therapy training, some completing Social Thinking Clinical Training, which requires therapists to apply and participate in a selection process. Using a Social Thinking (Winner, 2000) model of therapy, groups and individuals are not simply taught to memorize social routines, but explicitly taught the thought process behind social interaction. Students practice using one's language skills to seek information; listening that involves not simply taking in auditory information, but integrating information for a deeper concept, when all messages cannot be taken literally; gaining skills for abstract and inferential language; and interpreting others' perspectives, thoughts and feelings across contexts.

Avie Nikolopoulos with Language Adventures attendee

Language Adventures

Our intensive therapy program for children ages two through six with receptive and expressive language delays has expanded from five to seven weeks. Each week language enriching activities are planned within a thematic framework, such as camping, sports, farm, space, and community helpers.

No Summer Speech Lapses

Therapy doesn't stop because it's summer. The Shelton Speech Program continues to offer speech and language camps, as well as private therapy.

Therapists, along with Speech Therapy graduate student interns from The University of Texas at Dallas and Texas Women's University, host children of all ages in therapeutic camps that are both impactful and fun.

iSocialize

Also taking place in the summer are our social groups, targeting Social Thinking and related social skills for elementary age children. This therapeutic group teaches the "why" behind social interaction including perspective taking, thinking about others, expected vs. unexpected behaviors, active listening, and language for conversation.

"Shelton's social group with Krista Norwood is the one activity that our daughter does that seems to make a noticeable difference. I see the difference at home when our daughter asks us, 'How was your day today? What did you do today? Did you enjoy it?'" My daughter has never thought to ask other people about their thoughts and experiences before, so this is a huge improvement. The teachers see the difference at school because she talks more with the other children and actually seeks them out on the playground. We see the difference because our daughter has started talking about friends and was even asked to play at a friend's house."

Professional Education for the Community

The Shelton Speech Program was honored to host Jennifer Simon Triandafilou, M.S., CCC/SLP, from Simon Says Speech in Rockville, Maryland in September. Ms. Triandafilou provided two days of training for area speech pathologists on the topic of Orofacial Myofunctional Disorders: The Simon Says Model, Assessment, Diagnosis and Treatment Strategies. Over 40 speech pathologists were in attendance from the Dallas/Fort Worth area and from other cities including Austin, Houston and El Paso.

SHELTON EVALUATION CENTER

Laure Ames, Ph.D., Director

The Shelton Evaluation Center has had another busy year and our staff has worked with clients from Nigeria, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Washington, Alabama, Hawaii, and all over Texas. When we evaluate a client through either a psychoeducational, psychological, Autism Spectrum Disorder, and/or ADHD evaluation, our goal is to obtain a comprehensive picture of the client's functioning so that we can make appropriate recommendations. If any student is struggling, we should want to know why. Correct diagnoses help guide how to best help the student be as successful as possible. The remediation and/or accommodations that we recommend are tied to the diagnoses we make.

"It's a huge relief to now know how to help my child moving forward. I feel like for almost three years now I've been exhausting everything I know to do and I have felt so helpless, like I've failed my daughter. Everything makes so much sense now. You were an answer to my prayers. I'm glad I know about you guys now and how to help someone else in the future looking for similar help."

Parent of a client

One of the most common diagnoses that we make at the Evaluation Center is a diagnosis of dysgraphia. Texas state law requires public schools to identify students who have dyslexia and related disorders. The 2018 update of the Dyslexia Handbook: Procedures Concerning Dyslexia and Related Disorders lists dysgraphia as a distinct disorder related to dyslexia. Dysgraphia is defined as a neurodevelopmental disorder manifested by illegible and/or inefficient handwriting. Characteristics of dysgraphia include:

- variably shaped and poorly formed letters
- excessive erasures, poor spacing between letters and words
- awkward pencil grip, heavy pressure
- hand fatigue
- slow writing and copying with legible or illegible handwriting

Dysgraphia impacts a student's ability to copy from the board, write quickly, and write a lot and can impact the ease of written expression. Remediation would be through occupational therapy, and accommodations might include:

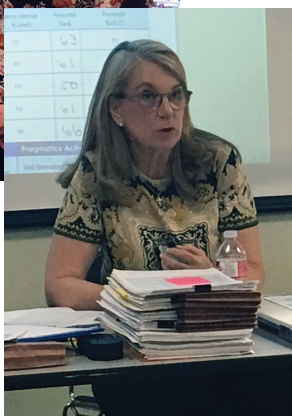

- the use of a laptop or word processor during class lectures
- receiving copies of the instructor's lecture notes
- using a tape recorder during class lectures
- using worksheets that require minimal writing
- allowing the student to respond orally when possible
- grading only for content and not for spelling and penmanship
- reducing copying tasks and written work
- allowing the student to dictate essay questions

Dictation software may be utilized for writing tasks. The Evaluation Center uses multiple measures to diagnose this disorder with the goal of recommending any therapy or accommodations the student needs.

Shelton's Evaluation Center is unique in the Dallas area because of our staff's extensive experience in offering multiple kinds of evaluations and integrating the information from these different evaluations in order to make appropriate and targeted recommendations for remediation and accommodations. Please call extension 2244 if you have any questions.

Shelton Spells Success

We've had a tagline around for a long time – At Shelton, we spell success. Have we told you how our students spell success lately? We are filled with pride every day with the many successes achieved by our students. Here are a few recent highlights that stand out:

- Last year's 66 graduating seniors were accepted to 111 colleges and universities. They earned $5,856,028 in merit scholarships (see pg. 65). Evan Antich, our valedictorian, is today attending Dartmouth College and is majoring in English. He was a National Merit Commended Scholar and achieved a perfect score on his ACT composite. Etan Cohn, our salutatorian, is attending Carnegie Mellon, majoring in statistics. Etan was a National Merit Scholarship Finalist (see pg. 48) and had a perfect score on ACT English and Science. Blake Moiles had a perfect score on the ACT Reading.
- This year, senior Fiona Dorward is a Commended Student with National Merit Scholarship Corporation.
- The last week of school before winter break, two students returned to Shelton to visit, which speaks well of the tight Shelton community. Blake Ghali, a freshman attending Baylor University, said he is working on a design through apparel management and product development at school. He's in the entrepreneurship strand at Baylor. In five years he sees himself owning his own design firm. Daniel Bulmer, home from Texas A&M, where he's majoring in Economics and Business Marketing, reported he has a 4.0 GPA. In five years he wants to be working in advertising (see pg. 35).
- Junior Gracie Dix has published Welcome to Superhero School, a middle-grade fantasy and adventure book and the first in a series she's created called The Vork Chronicles. She also is blogging on her own website.
- Junior Trinity Byars is one of five nominated for Young Female Athlete of the Year by USA Soccer.
- Alumni Relations Director Coach Locke reports that Emmet Halm, recent valedictorian at Jesuit in Dallas, chose Harvard over Yale for college (see pg. 26). He too came back to Shelton to share his success story.
- We celebrated two football players on National Signing Day – senior Fred Johnson / Houston Baptist University (see pg. 25) and former student E.J. Smith / Stanford (in his interview on ESPN2, he recognized Shelton's role in his education).

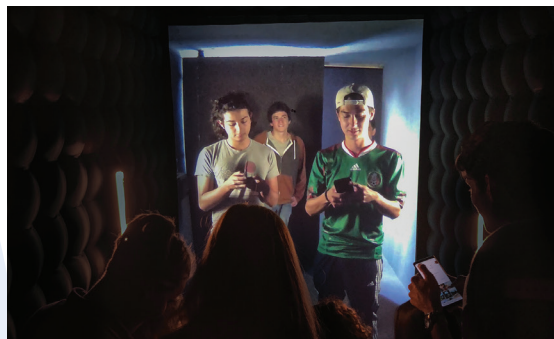

Shelton to Host and Share Portal Space

Shelton has been approved by Shared_Studios to be a Portal site from January through May 2020. Portals are shared spaces set up at various sites around the world. They make possible live, full-body, audio-visual environments that enable face-to-face dialogues between people who would not otherwise meet. Inside, people can converse with someone on the far side of the world as if in the same room. Participants can make eye contact and converse in real-time, and some have described feeling like they were "breathing the same air."

All of our students will get to participate at some level in this experience. They will be able to engage directly with other students and groups in such countries as Uganda, Bangladesh, The Netherlands or Jordan, to name but a few. Our students will learn something about different cultures from other students around the world, perhaps puncturing stereotypes as they reach beyond their own communities. We'll be teaching others about learning differences and some of our traditions.

We are thrilled to bring this opportunity to our campus, to enhance our curriculum and spark the curiosity and excitement of our students as they engage in experiential learning. Shared_Studios maintains a network of 40 Portals around the world, and Shelton will be one of them for five months. We will schedule several family / parent nights so that others can see what it's all about. We'll also be using our social media platforms to further share the information.

Faculty members Christy Fowler and Courtney Dios are spearheading the experience at Shelton. We look forward to sharing our students' experiences with you.

Fiona Dorward

Fiona Dorward is Commended Student by NMSC

Senior Fiona Dorward has been named a Commended Student in the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) will be presented to Fiona.

Some 34,000 Commended Students nationwide are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise. Although they will not continue in the 2019 competition for NMS Awards, Commended Students placed among the top 50,000 scorers of more than 1.5 million students who entered the competition by taking the 2018 PSAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Fiona is involved with Shelton's theatre program and handles backstage work. She is also a gifted writer who has been involved with the high school's literary magazine.

Fiona is only the fourth Shelton student ever to achieve this accomplishment, according to Debbie Knox, our Director of College and Career Advising. We celebrate her accomplishment.

LOWER SCHOOL NEWS

Ms. Fisher and Ms. Wilson set up the solar system

STEM Begins at Ground Level

STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) curriculum now starts at the Lower School level. Charlotte Fisher instructs our youngest students through daily lessons. A first lesson for Primary students this year was about measurement, followed by a hands-on experience of placing a scaled version of the solar system on the Shelton field. Students saw the distance between the planets and gained a better perspective of the Earth's placement in the solar system. To culminate the project, students enjoyed blasting off in their spaceships to different planets.

Let's experiment

STEM lessons also involve problem-solving, creativity, and collaborative learning, robots and coding, all adaptable to the youngest mind.

We'll build it together

Shelton Spirit Starts Early

Some of our littlest students express the biggest Shelton spirit. At Shelton, young students are included whenever possible in school events and celebrations, including football games, tailgate parties, pep rallies and more.

Native American Story Teller Enhances History for Students

Dorayne Breedlove visited Shelton to share her artistic storytelling. She creates adventures by weaving stories with music and movement. The children heard stories—How the Turtle Got His Cracked Shell, the Peace Feather, and Grandfather's Song—and were given various instruments, so that they could participate during the presentation. They also saw several Native American items, including a dream catcher and a wedding vase. Ms. Breedlove concluded her presentation with a story and beautiful flute solo.

Field Trips

In October, Primary grades visited the Farmers Branch Historical Park, an outdoor museum resting on 27 acres that traces the history of Farmers Branch, along with that of Peters Colony, Texas, and the United States. Students saw how families lived in log cabins in the 1800s, shared their chores and attended school in a one-room classroom. Students also visited a general store and a church.

Students Did the Teaching on First Student / Parent Lesson Night

Montessori is a multisensory method of learning in which children are given a variety of lessons based on skill and developmental level. In October, our Lower School students were invited to present lessons to their parents. All children from ages three to eight showed works such as the Sound Cylinders, Word Building, Trinomial Cube, Stamp Game, Planisphere Map and more. The students demonstrated their independence within the classroom and confidence in their knowledge.

Fire Trucks an Annual Favorite at Shelton

Firefighters from nearby Station 56 visited the EC and Pre-Primary students this fall. Everyone enjoyed a big red truck, and students learned safety tips from their friends, the firemen.

Lions, Tigers and Chimps, Oh My!

Barbara Hollweg, grandmother of student Carson Watson, made a special appearance in November to share her photographs and her cause. An award-winning conservation photographer, Hollweg has taken pictures of African wildlife since 2005, when her passion stemmed from seeing orphaned and abused chimpanzees on a trip. Her desire to make people aware of conservation issues has been brought to fruition through her skills as a photographer and her financial resources.

Mrs. Hollweg, winner of a Jane Goodall photography award, showed a variety of beautiful pictures of animals including a lioness caring for her young, a giraffe with legs spread to drink water, and chimpanzees playing with clothes they had found in the jungle.

Social Thinking Curriculum Now a Basic in Lower School

Social learning is all about thoughts and feelings. We subscribe to the concept that what we think and what we feel are inseparable, and that knowing what others think and feel is critical to higher social connections. Our brain is our thought maker, and our heart is our feelings keeper. In Lower School we are laying the foundations to abstract thinking about thoughts and emotions. We are sharing these concepts with our parents, so that, together, we can equip our students as they learn to share and collaborate. Social thinking curriculum now spans all classroom and "specials" activities.

Casey Barnett studies fossil with students

Fossils Make the Rounds

Students have been privileged to study some beautiful 65-million-year-old ammonites. These ammonites and some other Texas fossils, found and loaned to Shelton by Kenny Schulbach, have previously been displayed at the Perot Museum of Nature and Science. Ms. Casey Barnett and Ms. Jennifer Harriman's class studied them and prepared a presentation about them that included short videos and an i-Movie made by the students. The class next taught third-, fourth-, fifth- and seventh-graders what they had learned. All in all, they created an educational experience for twelve groups.

Coding Curricula Part of Everyday Classes

Students are using Visual Programming Language (programming with pictures) by instructing their Thymio robots to follow logical If:Then statements. The program uses the robot's photoelectric, capacitive and sound sensors, along with motors and speaker, to command the "bunny" robot to go after carrots and flee predators. These creative challenges make coding fun.

Genius Hour Promotes Appreciation of Research

Genius Hour is a time for research and exploration of a topic chosen by the student in third / fourth grade. Students develop questions they want answered and then research for answers through the school library, magazines, or online articles and interviews. They compile their findings and cite them in a bibliography. Next they make a class presentation in a variety of ways. Some dress up, while others choose a digital route to present their findings. "When is Genius Hour?" has become a common question for curious students who are developing an excitement about research.

Roger and Jill Pickett, Sharon and Fred Christen visit on Veterans Day

Veterans Visit to Share History

Two war veterans visited Rhonda Santoyo and Lolly Ashwill's class on Veterans Day. The visitors reported that they enjoyed the visit even more than the students, who loved hearing the veterans' stories. Fred served in the Navy and fought in the Korean War. Roger is an Army vet who fought in Vietnam.

Makerspace Expands Creativity

A Makerspace gives children the opportunity to explore and create in three dimensions. It can be as simple as recreating a scene from a novel or building a wooden polygon after drawing one on paper, or it can be more complex, like making a working model of a windmill inspired by research on The Netherlands. Children enjoy applying concepts they've studied to make creations relevant to their experience. For example, after studying electrical circuits, our students created a "campfire" with LED lights for use during afternoon meetings. The Makerspace creates opportunities for failure and how to take failure in stride. In the Makerspace children are learning to keep order, collaborate, plan and execute, and to express themselves in a way that two-dimensional work doesn't allow. Our Makerspace exposes talent in children who struggle in other areas - maybe a student can't verbalize a concept she has learned, but she can create a model that demonstrates understanding. Students are drawn to the Makerspace, because in the Makerspace, there are no wrong answers.

The Simulations of Learning Differences night held in October continues to be a popular and emotionally moving night. Attendees travel to six unique stations and undergo simulated experiences typical of persons with learning differences. This year we hosted a record number of over 350 people from throughout the Metroplex.

We also offered 10 eight-hour Saturday seminars which are required for Therapy Level teacher trainees and open to the public for a nominal fee. The seminars are taught by Shelton staff members. Topics included:

- Organization and Study Skills
- Neurological Aspects of LD / Current Research
- The Shelton Model for Teaching Social Skills
- Discipline / Classroom Management
- Structural Math
- History of Language
- Phonological Awareness: Assessment, Analysis & Practical Application
- Oral Language Development
- Fluency and Comprehension
- Dyslexia Law / Composition
- MACAR / Child Development

We were pleased to host information booths at the Academic Language Therapy Association (ALTA) National Conference, the Dallas Branch IDA Conference, and the Region 10 Annual State Dyslexia Institute.

MIDDLE SCHOOL NEWS

New student parties were a hit

Student Council Set A Fast Fall Pace

The Middle School Student Council had a busy fall. The officers started the year by providing a welcome gift to Middle School teachers at in-service. They then hosted parties for new students, one each for sixth, seventh and eighth grade. Members enjoyed refreshments, playing games and visiting with new friends. At Halloween, members put a Halloween joke and note on every Middle School student's locker. They next sponsored a two-week Thanksgiving canned food drive (see pg. 20, Community Connections).

Officers traveled in November to San Marcos for the annual Texas Association Student Council (TASC) conference. As a side trip, they visited the Texas State Capitol and Congressman Roger Williams' office (R, District 25).

After School Activities Enrich Learning

Shelton faculty provide numerous after-school activities (ASA), and each school division has its unique offerings. This year, a group of Middle Schoolers is enjoying Drama - Let's Talk About It, a club led by Georgana Jinks, (Middle School Drama & Reading Specialist) and Rachel Stockman (Middle School Speech Language Pathologist). Students are incorporating creative drama and improv techniques using language-based foundations. The fun and energetic drama club includes drama games, improvisational scene work and character study, all emphasizing language and social thinking skills.

Students Study and Dine Multiculturally

In December, students from three sixth-grade World Geography classes came together to share a greeting, food and knowledge about one of the European countries they had researched this term.

Their placemats were their infographics about their country, created on GoogleDraw.

Students shared traditional foods from Estonia, Croatia, Bulgaria, England and France, to name but a few.

It's Not Greek to Them

Students in Mrs. Lisa Byrnes seventh grade English class have enjoyed the Greek life. After reading about Zeus and other Olympians, they fashioned togas out of sheets and ate food related to the gods and goddesses they studied — cupcakes adorned with thunderbolts in honor of Zeus, pomegranate seeds for Persephone, and deer sausage inspired by Artemis, goddess of the hunt. To top off the festive day, students shared stories about their created god or goddess to help them with tasks or interests in daily life, e.g. chores, homework, music, horsemanship, and even making snow fall here in Dallas.

Middle School Travels Mix Education with Fun

Numerous trips have taken place, or are in the works for Middle School students. For all, whether day-long or extended, the trips align curriculum with teambuilding and adventure.

Seventh-Graders Visit Wetlands

Seventh-grade students traveled November 5th to the John Bunker Sands Wetland Center and spent the day learning about wetland and river ecosystems, bird migrations and water conservation. The Center, located in the middle of the 2000-acre East Fork Wetland Project, serves as the hub of environmental and social interest of man-made wetland habitats on the Rosewood Seagoville Ranch property. Students got to observe and collect data for assigned research projects for the day. This scientific inquiry method provides real-life experience using field and laboratory investigations to solve problems and make informed decisions. Despite the rainy weather, students were enthusiastic about being part of learning and collecting data to test the water quality.

Next on the horizon for seventh-graders is a three-day Texas Adventure trip to San Antonio. Highlights will include a trip to the Texas Capitol Building in Austin, a guided tour of the Alamo, volunteer service at Haven for Hope Homeless Center or the San Antonio Food Bank, and a tour of Natural Bridges Caverns.

Eighth-Graders Travel to D.C.

Shelton eighth-graders are looking forward to a four-day trip to Washington, D.C. in April. The trip is being coordinated by Middle School Assistant Head Patricia Gallaher. Highlights of this trip-of-a-lifetime include Capitol Hill, the Supreme Court, a Wreath Laying Ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery, and the Smithsonian Museum.

Sixth-Graders Visit JA BizTown in January

BizTown combines in-class learning with a day-long visit to a simulated town. The program gives students in sixth grade the opportunity to run a bank, manage a cafe, read utility meters, use debit cards and even vote. Classroom materials have been created with teacher input and are provided by the non-profit Junior Achievement, along with teacher training.

The JA BizTown curriculum aligns with the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) by introducing basic business and economic concepts. Prior to attending, students will progress through 12 classroom lessons. This is the second year for Shelton to affiliate with the JA program and curriculum.

Augmented Reality Augmented Geography Classes

Shelton parents Son Tran (Nicholas, Gr. 12) and John Sallaway (William, Gr. 4) visited campus October 10th. The two are co-founders of VSpatial, and they shared an augmented reality experience with sixth-grade geography students. Later Mr. Son and Mr. Sallaway showed their augmented reality app for collaborative meetings to Shelton administration. Teens and adults alike were fascinated with everything they "saw."

English Classes Create Glog

After reading the novel Blood on the River, students in Mrs. Susan Ruff's eighth-grade English classes created a Glog using Glogster, an interactive, web-based poster that combines text and copyright-free images used to share their six "Life Lessons." Library media coordinator Margaret Simmons assisted students with the Glog.

Robotics Team Brings Home the Trophies

Shelton's Middle School Robotics Team competed at Williams High School in Plano November 16. Competition was stiff, with 33 teams. Shelton brought home two of the ten trophies. Sara Harris is the team's faculty sponsor. The team is part of the First Lego League.

20th Annual Ethics Symposium Takes Place in 2020

Shelton hosts its 20th Annual Ethics Symposium February 5, 2020. For the third year Shelton partners with The Naveen Jindal School of Management (University of Texas at Dallas) for the event, which takes place at UTD's Davidson-Gundy Alumni Center. Sophomores, juniors and seniors from several local high schools participate in the symposium.

Ethics Everyday is this year's theme. Speaker and panel discussions include ethics and religion, education and technology.

National Honor Society Maintains Shelton Stronghold

Since 2012 Upper School has had a chapter of the National Honor Society (NHS), a nationwide organization that recognizes students of high academic achievement, good character, and strong leadership skills. To become a member of this group, Shelton has established a minimum cumulative GPA of 93%. Now in its eighth year, the group has grown significantly and includes 63 juniors and seniors. The group participates in service projects, e.g. peer tutoring, library assistance, and individual projects. NHS members are required to complete a minimum of five service hours for NHS, in addition to the 20 required of all Shelton upper-class students.

Officers for 2019 - 2020:

President - Josie Hostin

Vice-President - Miles Lipshy

Secretary - Eve Miller

Communications - Dany Demashkiah

VP Treasury / Resources - Kyndall Hodgson

Faculty advisor is Samantha Franklin, with Dan Hanson as Co-Advisor.

New members are added each year at a special induction ceremony. Sophomore, junior or senior students who have met the GPA requirements at the end of fall semester are invited to apply for membership.

STEM Focus Reinforced by Coding / Robotics and Engineering Classes

Shelton's STEM curriculum now spans Lower School through Upper School. Faculty member Joey Newman's students are working with robots. Dan Hanson's classes are building some impressive bridges using their engineering skills. Their studies are the staple for tomorrow's trained workforce.

Pod-Casts Continue to Feature Shelton Stories

Shelton students have continued using the podcast medium to broadcast some of Shelton's many newsworthy stories. Recent ones included The Parents' Perspective, featuring Andy and Gina Pena, and Joe Griffith, the youngest member inducted into the National Speakers Hall of Fame in 1981, along with President Ronald Reagan.

Clubs Abound for High Schoolers

Shelton Upper School students have a variety of clubs to enjoy. Whether it's Engineering Club, Chargers for Change (C4C), American Sign Language (ASL) Club, or Performing Arts Club, there's something for everyone. New this year is the Inclusion Club. Says faculty sponsor Greg Farnsworth, "The Shelton Inclusion Club gives every student an opportunity to recognize Shelton as a safe place for everyone. The club welcomes all students and offers them a chance to celebrate diversity and learn about others. Throughout the year, various speakers will lead discussions about relevant topics and encourage members to celebrate differences."

Seniors Plan for College and Careers

Members of the Class of 2020 are making plans for the future, wherever their various paths may lead. Working with Debbie Knox, Director of College and Career Advising, 72 seniors are studying their options. Some will go directly to college. Others may take a gap year for a different experience. For those college-bound students, 100 representatives visit Shelton throughout the year to help students learn about various programs as they study their options.

Senior Julia Genovese has made her decision. She delivered an address to some 1,500 attendees November 22 on Grandparents' Day. She shared her reflections on her school struggles pre- Shelton and on her life at Shelton beginning in ninth grade. "Shelton has helped me see that I am a good kid capable of doing extraordinary things! As for my academic life...I am in the National Honor Society and have been accepted into the Honors College at the University of Wyoming for next fall. So the timid ninth-grader, who entered Shelton only four years ago with questionable self-esteem and with hope for a brighter future, stands before you saying 'Thank you, Shelton, for bringing me out of my shell, boosting my self-esteem and giving me the opportunity for a brighter future.'" Shelton supports all seniors with their unique journeys.

FINE ARTS FEATURES

Theatre / Drama

Meet Me in St. Louis Set the Stage for 2019-2020 Season

Shelton's Theatre Arts presented the play Meet Me in St. Louis in October. Based on the book by Sally Benson, Meet Me in St. Louis is set in 1904. The production offered students great period roles centered on a family's involvement with the World's Fair in St. Louis, Missouri.

Rod Caspers coaches theatre students

Fifty-three high school students were part of the cast and crew, under the direction of Anné Hughes, Director of Fine Arts. In preparation for the performances, they had a two-day master class with acclaimed director Rod Caspers, formerly with The University of Texas at Austin. "It is always such a treat for me to return to Shelton to work with everyone in the theatre department," said Caspers. "The students have been trained to remain open to new direction and are always willing to try new ideas. The time spent at Shelton is always highly productive and very rewarding for me."

Said Lindsay Kaplan, a senior who performed in the play, "The fall play has always been an amazing experience for me every year, and when Mr. Caspers comes to work with us, he takes my theatre skills and our show to a whole new level."

Duncan Delights Shelton

Broadway legend Sandy Duncan excited theatre and choir students and their parents with a visit to Shelton in November. She shared stories of her career in theatre, television and film and bonded with students as she discussed her learning differences and her strategies for overcoming them. Following her presentation, Duncan signed copies of the book, My Life with Tom Hughes: A Personal Story of the "Musicals Man" of Dallas, in which she is featured, and which was authored by Anné Hughes, his wife.

Take Note of Choral Music

Shelton's singers were heard at fall events, including Shelton at The Star, Grandparents' Day, and the fall concert. Shelton's vocal music program comprises Vocal Charge (Upper School), Seventh Grade Choir Class, Shelton Singers (Middle School Honor Choir), and Broadway Kids (Lower School / Upper Elementary Honor Choir).

Singers are sporting new concert dress attire made possible through a gift from Shelton Parents' Association. Vocal Arts Director Blair King is currently rehearsing singers for the winter musical Annie.

Performing Arts Club Provides Extra Opportunities

Numerous high school students are involved in the Performing Arts Club. Recent outings have included trips to the Dallas Theater Center to attend In the Heights and A Christmas Carol.

Shelton to Participate in ISAS Fine Arts Festival

High school Fine Arts students will represent Shelton this spring at the Independent Schools Association Southwest (ISAS) Fine Arts Festival in Tulsa, OK.

Art a Part of the Shelton Canvas

Art is found many places on Shelton's expansive campus, and it features the creativity from student artists in every division. Lower School has most recently fashioned art based on holiday stories from around the world. Upper Elementary and Middle School divisions have been involved with Art in Action, scheduled studio times when parents are invited to come take a hands-on role in their students' classes. "Open art studio" time is new this year. Initiated by art instructor Kathleen Goree. Her studio is open two days a week during study hall for students to pop by and create something, even though they are not currently enrolled in an art class.

Also new this year is Shelton's participation, along with 21 other schools, in the first Upper School Invitational Art Exhibition, presented by Episcopal School of Dallas. Shelton is represented by Mia Goldberg's monoprint and Avery Eckert's mixed medium work.

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS BEYOND THE CAMPUS

Tornadvo Victims Get Some Shelton Spirit

Various Shelton groups responded to help students, families and schools devastated by 10 tornadoes that struck Dallas in late October.

Thirty-two Shelton athletes and four parents showed up at Medrano Middle School (Dallas ISD) November 2nd to support DISD's Cary Middle School's Athletic Department. Shelton volunteers sorted through athletic gear that was destroyed at Cary by one of the recent tornadoes. Shelton Coach Cecil Young coordinated the service efforts. Said Shelton parent and Dallas ISD Assistant Athletic Director Stacey Segal, "The Chargers helped sort, clean, inventory and count the items from Cary Athletics that were transferred to Medrano. Thank you so much!" The group was recognized on television for its work on the Something Good feature on NBC Channel 5.

Shelton Strong with NDCC

For the 17th year, Shelton continues its affiliation with the North Dallas Chamber of Commerce (NDCC) and is an active participant with its Education Committee. Shelton hosted the Education Committee's October meeting, which coincided strategically with the nation's Dyslexia Awareness Month. Shelton's Joyce Pickering and Laure Ames presented the program, joined by Nancy Disterlic, Region 10 Dyslexia Consultant with the State of Texas. Their topic was an overview of dyslexia, including related legislative initiatives and remediation programs. Shelton's Anne Hendrick-Thomas chairs the Education Committee.

The event was launched with a party Oct. 18th at the home of Angela Wommack and Ted Casey (Avery, Gr. 9). This year's theme is 20/20 Envision Our Future.

"I love volunteering for the SPA. Not only has it let me meet some awesome Shelton parents, but, most importantly, it's a way for me to thank a community of teachers and staff who commit and provide their time and talent to our children giving them a sense of comfort, love and belonging every day."

Gina Rangel Pena (Arwen, Gr. 4)

"Over the years I've discovered that I benefit a great deal from my volunteer activities at the Shelton Parents' Association. For example, I've become acquainted with a number of parents, I've learned a great deal about the day-to-day operations of the school, I've developed good relations with the teachers and staff, and sometimes I see my son making his way in his daytime environment. All good!"

- Grandparents' Day - Chairs Kari Gryzch (Piper, Gr. 6) and Jenny Dougherty (Addyson, Gr. 6) hosted 1,500 guests on November 22nd. Senior Julia Genovese (see Upper School News) inspired attendees with her personal Shelton story. Fine arts and spirit groups performed for the audience before grandparents attended mini classes with their grandchildren

SPOTLIGHT ON SPORTS

Freddie Jones, Director of Athletics and Physical Education

Shelton Athletics is off to a great start in 2019 with a young varsity volleyball team poised to do big things, a cross country team with all state performers, and a varsity football team that hosted a first round playoff game. I am truly excited about the hard work our coaches and our student athletes have put in. There has been a huge focus on development the last couple of years, and we now get to see the fruits of the hard work that has taken place. As we enter our winter sports, I can't wait to see what our kids do next.

Shelton is proud of our students who went beyond our doors to further their education.

Shelton Ex Headed to Harvard

Ex-Shelton Student, and recent Dallas Jesuit Valedictorian, Emmet Halm visited Shelton this past Spring to announce his acceptance to Harvard. He also addressed the Middle School Staff Faculty meeting during In-Service. Emmet is living proof that hard work in life and school pays off with great rewards. He was also accepted to Yale.

Shelton is proud of our students who go beyond their struggles to excel.

Alumni Day

On January 9th Shelton will host a College Board and Alumni Day for former and current students. The Upper School had an assembly with Shelton alumni and exes who are currently pursuing careers or college. College Advisor Debbie Knox organizes a great panel to instruct, inform and educate our current students on what the future might hold after their Shelton days. Middle School and Upper School classes also have alumni speakers present to discuss their journeys at Shelton and beyond.

This year's
Alumni Day takes place
Thursday, January 9th
at 8:30 am, in Shelton's
Dining Hall.

Let the good times roll for alumni

The Star

One of the highlights of the school year is when Shelton gets to host a Varsity Football game at The Star in Frisco. On October 19th, Shelton played Arlington Grace Prep in a district game. The two teams get the benefit of playing in one of the nicest sports complexes in the nation, but Shelton students, parents, and staff also get to be a big part of the event. For the second year in a row, our alumni have been treated to an amazing gathering in the Hospitality Suite provided by Charlotte Jones Anderson of the Dallas Cowboys and mother of alums and exes—Shy, Haley and Paxton. Several classes merged on this evening at the game, and in the suite. Thanks to all the alumni and exes who reconnected at The Star.

Homecoming 2019

Shelton's homecoming game was held on September 19th against Lewisville Founders Classical and played at John Paul II. Shelton was unsure how a Thursday game would impact alumni and exes' attendance, but we had a packed stadium of past, present and future Chargers. It is always a blessing to reconnect with so many former students from Shelton.

OFF THE SHELF LIBRARY UPDATE

Libraries and media centers help our Shelton students become learners for life. In addition to a wealth of books, catalogued items, and subscription databases, Shelton provides experiences that help foster the students' love for reading and learning.

Special Themes Promote Reading

Each school division has unique activities to engage its readers. National Dot Day and Trot into Reading are a hit with Lower School. Reading picnics are cool for Middle School bookies. Guys' and Girls' Book Clubs are trendy for Upper School.

Open Doors Foster Reading and Research

Shelton's libraries are generally open before and after school. In addition, 11 parents come regularly to volunteer time in our centers, some spending the entire day. Classes also make their way to the libraries for research and assistance with special projects, e.g. medieval times for seniors and chemistry elements for sophomores.

Book Fair Was Snow Much Fun

Students, parents, grandparents, special friends, and volunteers helped make our Book Fair a huge success. Special thanks to 35 parent volunteers who helped set up, manage, and pack up the fair. We sold over $27K in books, with proceeds of $6K that allowed us to put 4,290 books into the hands of students and underwrote special events and programs for both students and staff. Through donations and participation in the Classroom Wish List program, others helped us purchase more resources for the teachers' classrooms, which ultimately benefits our students. Special thanks to SPA Book Fair co-chairs Robin Sells and Gabrielle Ott.

BYO Professional Development Continues a Favorite with Staff

Clare Stein, Upper Elementary faculty member, was the winner of the 2019-20 drawing for a dream-come-true Build Your Own Professional Development (BYOPD) opportunity. The drawing took place on September 13th during in-service. The prize of $3,000 makes possible a travel opportunity to learn in-depth about Madame Marie Curie. Madame Curie was a two-time winner of the Nobel Prize (the first woman), and Clare will get to study her life's history abroad where Curie once lived and worked. Then she'll bring all that knowledge back to her classroom to share. She'll also share highlights of the experience with Shelton faculty and staff at a future in-service program.

Accolades

Shelton Recognized as Organization by DBU

Shelton School was honored as a Distinguished Educational Partner by Dallas Baptist University (DBU) on November 19th at their annual awards event. Shelton and DBU have partnered together for many years through educational cohorts and degree programs. Over 85 teachers have earned master's degrees through the partnership. The award came from DBU's Dorothy M. Bush College of Education.

TECHNOLOGY TRENDS

Tina Larson, Director of Technology

Technology for Today and Tomorrow

Shelton continues with business as usual to equip its four entities—School / Evaluation Center / Speech Language Hearing Program / Outreach & Training—with technology, all the while making plans for the future. We continue to enhance technology for all our constituents—students, staff, parents, and the public at large. Here are highlights from each timeframe:

Staff Changes to Help Us Grow

Chris Brendel, a six-year former Middle School faculty member, has transitioned to a new role in the Technology Department as Technology Integration Specialist. As such, he

- Assists teachers integrate technology into their lessons, where appropriate. An example of this is the use of augmented reality technologies in Geography or 3-D modeling and printing in History.
- Assists students with software and related technologies to enhance classroom learning. An example of this is the use of Read&Write for text-to-speech or dictation.
- Assists staff implement Google technologies to increase efficiency and reduce the use of paper.

(L to R) Tekhelp group Ahren Willms, Chris Brendel, Eddie Moreno, Corey Smith, Tina Larson

Going Paperless When Possible

The entire organization has begun to scan and digitize historical paper records. This is quite an undertaking, and we are pleased with our progress thusfar.

Shelton Parents' Association Assists with Future Planning

We are grateful for funds donated by the SPA that have enabled us to purchase two different interactive flat panel displays. We are currently using and evaluating each to see which model will better serve our students at our new campus.

Shelton Technology at a Glance

274 computers distributed to faculty and staff

100 iPads

1,400 devices managed by dedicated computer specialists Eddie Moreno, Corey Smith and Ahren Willms

800+ computers distributed to students

- ONE TO ONE 5th grade on classroom carts
- ONE TO ONE 6th grade on-campus use only
- ONE TO ONE 7th -12th grade on-campus and at home

9 computer carts (shared by 3rd-4th classrooms)

4 computers per classroom in 3rd / 4th Upper Elementary classrooms

Next on the Horizon—Technology for the New Campus

Wheels are in motion as plans are being executed at Shelton's new campus. For nearly two years, many people have worked together to orchestrate our plans.

- Installation of a state-of-the-art network configuration and equipment to support our ever-increasing bandwidth needs and to carry Shelton into the future
- 44+ miles of cable (fiber and copper)
- 150+ interactive flat panel boards
- Dedicated teacher training area
- Increased space for the Tekhelp Department to accommodate future growth

Your gifts make it possible for our amazing students to achieve great things.

This Annual Report reflects gifts received between June 1, 2018 and May 31, 2019. We have made every effort to give proper credit to all who have contributed to the Shelton School during the 2018-2019 fiscal year. We regret any errors or omissions and request that any such oversights be reported to the Development Office. Thank you to everyone who contributed to this report.

The Return on the Investment: Successful Shelton Students

We are grateful for all Shelton supporters and donors. Through the generous gifts of many, we are able to provide a fine educational model to many students. Donors may wonder about the return on their investment. We witness the return on their investment every day—in the young student who gains self-esteem, the teen who learns team spirit, the parents whose child no longer struggles but thrives, and the graduate who confidently leaves Shelton to become a citizen of the world. We celebrate the return on our donors' investments with gratitude.

How Do You Compute a Child's School Success?

No chart or graphic can capture a child's success. Percentages citing revenue and expenses just don't do it justice. Tuition alone never covers the expenses of running a private school, and the additional revenue from our various sources is a necessary component to provide Shelton's unique educational model.

THE JUNE SHELTON HERITAGE SOCIETY

The June Shelton Heritage Society honors benefactors who have contributed $50,000 or more to the needs of the school.

I was trained by our founder, Dr. June Ford Shelton. She was the warmest and kindest person you would ever meet. She was a child whisperer. We are grateful for your support, particularly as we take June Shelton's vision to a new site.

DELPHI

DELPHI SOCIETY

Delphi is a small town in the mountains of Greece where the famous oracle of Apollo supposedly took place, announcing the future. It is a symbol for seeking to know and shape the future.

To honor those individuals who seek to shape the future of Shelton School, the Delphi Society was established in 2003. The Society recognizes and thanks alumni and friends of Shelton who have created provisions in their wills or estate plans to benefit Shelton School.

Thank you from Shelton's 2018-19 Annual Fund Co-Chairs Charging Forward...Changing Lives

It has been a pleasure to serve as this past year's Annual Fund Parent Co-Chairs.

The Shelton community generously donated a record-breaking $1.2 M to the 2018-19 Annual Fund! Your generous support made it possible for our students to continue engaging every day in a variety of extraordinary learning opportunities! They continue to be empowered and enriched into tomorrow's leaders and achievers with the help of Shelton's dedicated faculty and staff.

On behalf of the entire Shelton community, we express our deepest appreciation for each and every supporter. It takes support from all corners of the Shelton community to sustain the Shelton School we know and love. Thank you for helping Shelton as we continue Charging Forward.....Changing Lives.

Sincerely,
Jennifer Dix

Kelli Valade

New Face On Board

We welcome Kelli Valade as a new Board of Trustees member.

Kelli and her husband Don are parents to Shelton sophomore Christian Valade, who enrolled in 2016. She is CEO and President of TDn2K, LLC (Transforming Data into Knowledge). Prior to this, she was President of Chili's Bar & Grill and Executive Vice President for Brinker International. Professionally she serves on the boards of Women's Foodservice Forum and National Restaurant Association Education Foundation. Personally she is involved with St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, National Charity League (Allen Chapter) and Allen Community Outreach. Kelli was featured speaker at a fall in-service for Shelton faculty and staff.

READY FOR OUR NEXT VENTURE

Class of 2019 Heads for New Horizons

Sixty-six seniors received 234 acceptances to 111 colleges and universities and together earned $5,856,028 in merit scholarships. We celebrate their diverse paths and look forward to following their futures.
