placing second, third and fifth in various competitions; and instructor Sheri Carson, who was selected as Oregon FCCLA Advisor of the Year.

PRIDE night, April 14th, was a huge success. The Lip Dub completed filming today and Prom is this Saturday.

Dr. Parsons noted Principal Goirigolzarri's Retirement Celebration at Seven Feathers Resort. He reminded board members and staff that Employee Recognition will be held at RHS on April 23rd at 3:45 in the student center. He also encouraged administrators to recognize their administrative staff for Administrative Professional's Day.

He shared a Labor Market Report handout.

Student Recognitions:

Certificates of Accomplishment and McDonald's gift cards were presented to three deserving students of the month. Director Lee shared that Micah Lake, a 5th Grade Student at Fir Grove Elementary, was honored for nearly perfect attendance, hard work, determination and cooperation. Her natural leadership skills, serving on Student Leadership Team and as Student Council Secretary were highlighted. She is very helpful, a joy to have in class.

Director Meyer honored Melrose 5th Grade Student, Dawson Gillespie, for his honesty, kindness, maturity, diligence and hardworking attitude. He is extremely humble and conscious of the feelings of others, striving for perfection as a student athlete. Dawson is noted for having the best socks in the school and always pushing himself to the next level.

Director Garcia shared that Winchester Elementary 5th Grade Student, Aiden Luna, was being honored as a capable student with a willingness to work hard and a natural ability to read with enthusiasm and personality. He is kind and respectful to all. He shares his great sense of humor and uses self-control in challenging situations.
