Time & Location:
 The January 24, 2018 School Board Meeting took place at 6:00 p.m. in the Winchester School Media Center located at 217 Pioneer Way, Winchester, Oregon

SUPERINTENDENT:

Superintendent's Report:

Last Tuesday, Dr. Washburn joined Winchester Principal, Keith Kronser, riding Bus 51 to encourage positive student behavior. On the 19th, he and HR Director, Robert Freeman, enjoyed sharing RHS lunch duty while staff attended trainings. Yesterday was spent at Fir Grove Elementary. Dr. Washburn looks forward to attending Student Day at the Rock Creek Fish Hatchery on the 31st and the Eastwood Elementary Fishing Day on February 1st. Dr. Washburn appreciated local Commissioner Tim Freeman for inviting him to join other community leaders at a Successful Communications Strategies Group meeting on the 18th. The Superintendent will be attending a state Superintendents' Meeting and the COSA Winter Conference

Next Board Meeting:
 February 14, 2018
 6:00 p.m.
 Administrative Office Board Room, 1419 NW Valley View Drive, Roseburg

on Thursday and Friday of this week. He plans to spend a day with Sunnyslope students next week.

Student Recognition: Certificates of Accomplishment and McDonald's gift cards were presented to the following deserving students by their school principals:

- Ava Bryan, Fourth Grade Student at Winchester School;
- Shelby Moore, a Fifth Grade Student at Winchester; and
- Helena Pappas, a Fifth Grade Student at Eastwood School.

Action Items: The Board approved the Consent Agenda that consisted of Minutes from January 10, 2018 and Surplus Items.

Dr. Washburn announced resignations including Debra Gaddis, Choir Teacher at Joseph Lane Middle School after 23 years in the District; and Turnaround Program Special Education Teacher Drew Bauguess, after seven years with the District.

A Memorandum of Understanding between the District and the Roseburg Education Association (REA) regarding "Fair Share" was tabled for further consideration at the February 14th Board Meeting when all Board members can hopefully be able to attend.

The District will soon begin to solicit bids for turf replacement at RHS. In anticipation of that project, the Board has approved the recommendation to contract with FieldTurf USA through the InterMountain ESD purchasing cooperative for the RHS track resurfacing.

District Teaching and Learning Director, Robert Emerson, presented the annual Division 22 Standards Report to the Community as required by Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 581-022-2305.

Policy IGBI: English as a Second Language, with minor revisions, was Approved and Adopted at First Reading.

Policy IGBA: Students with Disabilities — Child Identification Procedures, was Approved for Second Reading and Adoption.

Chief Operations Officer, Cheryl Northam, shared a 2018-19 Budget Calendar for the Board's consideration. The Calendar was approved and Budget Committee members will be scheduled to meet on April 18th to begin reviewing the proposed 2018-2019 budget document.

RHS Student Leadership RHS Student Leadership students Marinda Carlyle, Aspen Graves and John Sajo presented current activities.

Marinda recapped sports events and John updated the Board on the annual ARTS Assembly (2/8); Orange and Black Dance (2/9); and the February 20th assembly featuring a motivational speaker, Keith Hawkins. Board members received gift baskets to celebrate School Board Appreciation Month. Aspen shared that students created posters to send to districts who have suffered tragic events, expressing love and support. New schedules await students following Finals Week, which has students focused on doing their best. Teachers are keeping PRIDE lessons in the forefront each week. The new and improved RHS "Crossroads Café" will be unveiled on February 1st. Students anticipate a positive change in less time spent in added lunch lines with increased variety in luncheon selections.
