made on February 27th. Recent television and newspaper coverage of Roseburg Public Schools has been complimentary, including Eastwood's participation in the DTO Fishery Derby and Green Elementary School mentioned as a partner with the Blue Zone and County road improvement project of Carnes Road. The district has been featured for our work to improve safety and security at all buildings. Superintendent Paterson recently toured the exceptional RHS CTE program and plans to describe the budget process for the community in a guest editorial by Information Specialist, Chelsea Duncan. The district is embarking on a message telephone line dedicated to our growing Spanish-speaking parent community. Robert Emerson and Gary McFarlane will be coordinating a parent survey using our technology and evaluating our IT capabilities and programs. More information to come in the spring.

Board PLC Activity

Human Resources Director, Robert Freeman, quizzed the Board on what our District Economic Footprint looks like and how it compares within the county and the state.

Student Leadership

RHS Leadership students, Marinda Carlyle and Marin Gray highlighted current and upcoming events. RHS hosted the FBLA Regional Skills Conference. Many students qualified for the state competition in April. Efforts to increase attendance rates are paying off with 85% of our freshman attendance at 90% or better! Leadership is preparing for the Arts Assembly February 22nd, including 4 singing acts, 4 dancing acts, band, choir and theatre. Painters and ceramic artists will work along the fringes. Also in the works: Prom, Mr. RHS, Mother-Daughter Tea, Senior Sunset, Homegoing Assembly, Volleybuff and the Orange & Black Dance. Sports—There are 40 students on the Unified Basketball Team! Boys' Basketball is ranked 26th in the state, Girls' Basketball is 49th. Swimming SWC District results—boys 200 and 400 freestyle relay teams and girls 400 relay will be advancing to the State Competition. Hunter Agsten came in first in the 500 freestyle and 2nd in the 200 freestyle. Brigid Rickman was first in the 100 freestyle and third in the 50 freestyle. The Wrestling SWC District Meet will be in Grants Pass on February 15th. Spring Sport tryouts begin at the end of February.
