Members Absent: Candace Anderson, Board Secretary and Alisa Morrison

Also present were Dr. Van Riley, Superintendent of Schools, Ana de Oliveira, Recording Secretary, members of the administration, and interested citizens.

CABE Workshop moderated by Nicholas Caruso from Connecticut Association of Board of Education: Board of Education and Administration working together implementing District Vision and Goals – Nicholas Caruso, representative from CABE facilitate the workshop. The Board of Education members and members of the administration with the guidance of Mr. Caruso focused the discussion around the development of district vision and goals, how to execute the goals, which goals directly affect students and goal expectations. The group spoke on how to best achieve each goal by giving feedback and sharing dialogue between both the Board and administration. Mr. Caruso shared three major components; Vision, Plan, Results which then equals Trust. The Board voiced their concerns with administration on procedural aspects of visiting school buildings and classrooms. Administration asked the Board for more communication and feedback after informational presentations. The Board will change the timing of the development of the district goals in the future to May.
