Upper School Teaching Positions

2020-21 School Year

In preparation for the 2020-21 school year, we are seeking talented educators interested in working in a collaborative, inquiry-based community.

Are you...

- A curious and creative teacher excited to bridge intellect and imagination in your classroom?
- A curator of inquiry-based learning?
- Excited to learn, teach, and grow in a 1:1 iPad learning environment?
- Willing to work with instructional coaches as part of a Professional Learning Community?
- A thoughtful student advisor?
- An effective communicator and thoughtful listener?
- An engaged and inclusive community member eager to partner with families, students, and colleagues?

Yes? Then read on!

Responsibilities

Among additional grade- or subject-specific roles, upper school faculty responsibilities include:

- Leading a student advisory
- Collaborating with colleagues on interdisciplinary projects
- Advancing SF Day's initiatives in the areas of diversity, equity, and inclusion, Universal Design for Learning, service learning, and outdoor education

At San Francisco Day School...

We believe that when intellect and imagination are intertwined, our students delight in the discovery of connection: in their academic and creative pursuits, in their relationships, and in all that they experience here. Every day we help our students emerge as flexible and resourceful learners. Because when we do, our students light up with the call and capacity to take on the complexities of their day and of a diverse world.

SF Day At a Glance:

- Independent, co-educational school
- Located in the heart of San Francisco
- Serving approximately 400 students
- SF Day devotes a significant amount of time and resources to seek and support ongoing professional development opportunities for faculty and staff

Ready to Join SF Day?

SF Day celebrates and welcomes faculty and staff who reflect the broad range of diversity in the Bay Area. We encourage people of color and LGBTQ+ persons to apply. SF Day offers excellent benefits and a competitive salary.

Please apply online with your resume and a thoughtful cover letter outlining your experience and preferred subject area.
