

The logo features the name "Heather Burns" in a white, elegant cursive font, with "Memorial Scholarship Fund" in a white, clean sans-serif font below it. The background is a vibrant blue with soft, glowing light rays and a faint image of a flower.

Heather Burns Memorial Scholarship Fund

The Board of Directors of the Heather Burns Memorial Scholarship Fund are pleased to announce that they are now accepting applications from high school seniors who have been accepted into a college/university, or other schools of higher learning. Applicants can complete our application process online at www.hbmsf.org website or by emailing the completed application to info@hbmsf.org. Students can also download the application and mail it directly to:

Heather Burns Memorial Scholarship Fund
1159 N. Detroit Ave
Tulsa, Okla. 74106

Applications must be submitted no later than June 30, 2020. The HBMSF is a 501 (c) (3) organization.

“Team Work Makes The Dream Work”

The HBMSF is a sole entity local to Tulsa and is not now nor has ever been associated with any other Sickle Cell Anemia organization.