This six-week online course focuses on factors of diversity that impact decisions educators must make regarding design and implementation of curriculum, teaching strategies, and materials in order to provide equity and excellence for all learners. Participants will have opportunities to step outside their comfort zone, critically examine their practice, and determine concrete steps to better teach all learners. This course is designed for K-12 educators.

The course will start with a face-to-face meeting (non mandatory) and be followed by 6 weekly online class modules.

Start Date:

March 19, 2020

Initial Face-to-face Meeting

4:00 – 5:00 PM

Davis Education Association Office

85 South 185 East

Farmington, UT 84025

Online coursework:
