

Centennial Junior High Yearbook Application

The Centennial Junior High School Yearbook staff is responsible for publishing our school's yearbook. This course is a full year class. As a part of this staff, members must demonstrate strong writing or design skills and a commitment to our program for the entire school year.

As a staff member, you will learn how to interview people and how to take pictures with digital cameras. High standards of journalism and contemporary design will be expected, and skills in these areas will be taught as a part of the class curriculum. What we need from you is your enthusiasm and willingness to learn.

This is a teamwork driven class in which DEADLINES are the TOP PRIORITY! Staff members have the opportunity to write stories, take pictures, add captions, and design the layout. If you would like to be considered for this class, follow the steps below. Be sure to hand in your completed application to the office.

1. Respond to the questions on the Student Application Form.
2. Write one half page to full page news story on any club, sport, or class you have been in this year, using quotes from relevant sources. The story needs to be in a newspaper style and include one picture you have taken that is relevant to the story. Please single space this story and use size 12 font.
3. Sign up for Yearbook as one of your electives.
4. Give the recommendation forms to three of your teachers.

Staff members are selected on the basis of the application, teacher recommendation scores, and availability of scheduling.

What can YOU contribute to the yearbook class? Why should I pick YOU over all of the other candidates - this is your chance to sell yourself and all of your skills and talents! (Attach extra paper if needed).
