The Covington Catholic High School Athletic Department is proud to announce an athletic signing ceremony on Wednesday, December 18th at 11:00am in the CovCath auditorium for seniors Lucas Jones and Michael Mayer who will be continuing their football careers next year in college.

Lucas Jones, son of Deana and Barry Jones, will be signing a letter of commitment with Cornell University of the Ivy League. Lucas was a three-year starter on the offensive line for Covington Catholic. During this time, the Colonels set numerous offensive records and the school's all-time leading rusher was established.

Michael Mayer, son of Amy and Andy Mayer, will be signing his National Letter of Intent with the University of Notre Dame. Michael was recently named the Gatorade Player of the Year and the KFC Mr. Football for the commonwealth of Kentucky. During the signing ceremony, Mayer will be presented the KFC Mr. Football award by KFC Executive Director Jimmie Reed.

During their time as members of the varsity football program, Lucas and Michael won two state championships (2017, 2019) and finished as state runner-up in 2018. Their overall record was 44-1, including three consecutive undefeated regular seasons.

"We are extremely proud of Michael and Lucas. Their dedication and commitment have led us to great success over the last three seasons," says Athletic Director Tony Bacigalupo. "Coach Eviston and his staff have done a tremendous job in preparing each of them for the next level. We are very happy for the Mayer and Jones families and look forward to watching each of them succeed both academically and athletically at two prestigious universities."
