COVINGTON CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCES ALL-STATE CHOIR MEMBERS

Two Covington Catholic students have been named all-state choir students by the Kentucky Music Educator's Association: Paul Allison and Luke Eisner.

Each year, many high school students from across Kentucky audition for the All-State Choirs, Bands, and Orchestras. The All-State Choir audition process involved a prepared vocal quartet and a sight-reading test. Paul and Luke are the first representatives from Covington Catholic in over a decade.

Paul Allison is the son of Carl and Carol Allison and is a member of St. Agnes Parish. Paul has been singing in choirs since 5th grade and was also previously named to the All-State Choir while in grade school. He attended the Kentucky Governor's School of the Arts (GSA) in the summer of 2019 where he studied film and photography. His college plans are to double-major in Marketing and Digital Media & Design.

Luke Eisner is the son of Andrew and Molly Eisner and is a member of St. Joseph Parish in Crescent Springs. Luke attended GSA in the summer of 2019 which motivated him to audition for the All-State Choir. Luke's future plans are to study theatrical design and production in college.

Covington Catholic High School is a 2016 Blue Ribbon of Excellence award winning college preparatory high school located in Park Hills, Kentucky, and operates within the Catholic Diocese of Covington. It is an all-male school of 546 whose mission is to embrace the Gospel message of Jesus Christ in order to educate students spiritually, academically, physically and socially.
