

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 20, 2019

CONTACT:

Jake Kleier

Marketing and Communications Assistant

Phone: (859) 448-2253

Email: jkleier@covcath.org

Website: www.covcath.org

Facebook: www.facebook.com/CovCath

Covington Catholic High School Announces New Track and Field Head Coach

Covington Catholic High School is pleased to announce that Shane Curtsinger has accepted the position of track and field head coach.

Shane Curtsinger is a graduate of Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tennessee. Shane was a member of the cross-country team and track team where he now holds school records in four events. Shane graduated from LMU with a Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training and later a Master of Business Administration degree.

After graduation, Shane became an assistant cross-country coach at the University of Alaska in Fairbanks where he led all aspects of the running program and coached Dorothy O'Donnell, the highest placing regional finisher in 2011. Shane then accepted the head track & field coach position at Wheelock College Boston, Massachusetts where he coached two athletes in the 500-meter event to All New England qualifying times, a first in school history. Shane currently lives in Cincinnati, Ohio with his wife Sofia.

Covington Catholic Athletic Director Tony Bacigalupo says of the hire, "We are very excited to name Shane Curtsinger our new Head Track Coach. Coach Curtsinger brings a wealth of experience as a collegiate coach and will do an excellent job continuing the proud Colonel track tradition!"

Covington Catholic High School is a 2016 Blue Ribbon of Excellence award winning college preparatory high school located in Park Hills, Kentucky, and operates within the Catholic Diocese of Covington. It is an all-male school of 546 whose mission is to embrace the Gospel message of Jesus Christ in order to educate students spiritually, academically, physically and socially.

###