FEBRUARY 2020

Hello Families!

Looks like we have hit the ground running in the New Year! We are looking forward to a great 3rd quarter of learning and growing!!

STUDENT LED CONFERENCES IN MARCH

WHY??

We feel across the district that student-led conferences are a very important way to engage children in understanding and taking ownership of their learning. We also believe this conference structure will help us to build better communication and stronger relationships with all families. Of course, anyone who feels they need a private meeting with a teacher will still be able to schedule one at a later time.

MARCH 12 SCHOOL DAY

Your child(ren) will participate in their conference and this will count for their daily attendance. The school day consists of the scheduled conference time only. During the conference time, Athol Elementary staff will provide child care for siblings for the scheduled conference time only. Busing will not be available on this day. Students that attend BASE will have the option of BASE from the hours of 6:30am to 6pm.

In the coming weeks your child's teacher will send home more detailed information describing the conferences, times, schedules, etc. We are counting on 100% participation as we launch student-led conferences!!

Thanks for your partnership,
Mrs. Thomas

Mrs. Berger

January - Fabulous - Fun - February

A Typical Day in ALP with Mrs. Anderson

January was a great month of students using design thinking as they engaged in activities that helped them problem solve to find answers.

Kindergarteners were amazing since they learned how to code with robot mice while their six grade buddies facilitated their learning. They set up the maze, wrote code with cards, programed the mouse and then debugged/fixed problems so their mouse could get to the cheese.

First graders learned more about hexagons, symmetry and why snow is white as we studied how all snowflakes are unique. Students cut out snowflakes, made crystallized flakes and snowflakes with glitter and glue while always making sure their patterns were hexagons.

Second graders also learned about snowflakes this month and did the same projects. They also started working on their habitat projects. Students started researching problems that might occur in their habitat, and I was amazed at their ideas. The next step is to start brainstorming ideas on how to solve these issues. What amazing second grade thinkers!

Third and fourth graders learned about a Rube Goldberg Machine, which is a machine intentionally designed to perform a simple task in an indirect and overly complicated way. They learned about simple machines and how to integrate them into their Rube Goldberg design. Super fun, but at times frustrating. I loved the GRIT they displayed! (fun video of a Rube Goldberg Machine)

One vision. Half a million smiles.

They grow up so fast.

Now's your chance to shape their future.

A kindergartener counted in the 2020 Census this spring will be starting high school when the next census comes around in 2030: That's 10 years of school supplies, teachers, school lunches, and so much more. This is your opportunity to help ensure they have a bright future.

Right now, students across the country are getting an introduction to the 2020 Census through the Statistics in Schools program. This program offers free activities and resources to schools to help prepare their students for an increasingly data-driven world.

Students are learning that the 2020 Census is a count of every person who lives in the United States and its territories. Responding to the census helps your community get its fair share of funding. Census data guides how more than $675 billion in federal funding is distributed to states and communities each year for schools, health care facilities, roads, transportation, recreation centers, social services, and more.

On Census Day, April 1, 2020, start shaping your future and the future of all children by counting everyone in your home.

Learn more about how you can shape your future at 2020CENSUS.GOV.

Get more information about the Statistics in Schools program at CENSUS.GOV/SCHOOLS.

Students are also learning these key things about the 2020 Census—and we want you to know them too:

- Starting in March 2020, everyone living in your home needs to be counted. That includes children and newborn babies, citizens and noncitizens, relatives and nonrelatives, and even those staying with you temporarily.
- It's easier than ever to respond to the census. You can respond in 13 different languages, and you can complete it online, by phone, or by mail.
- Your responses to the census are safe and secure. The law requires the U.S. Census Bureau to keep your information confidential, and your responses cannot be used against you in any way.

There's no question that Gen Z students are quickly becoming the "snacking generation". With school, sports and other extra-curricular activities, students need both healthy meals and snacks that will keep them energized all day. This month, students will learn to create healthy snacks with the Chartwells K12 Discovery Kitchen in their cafeteria. February's focus on Smart Snacking will teach students about making smart snacking choices and incorporating healthy snacks and meals into their busy schedules.

Fresh fruit is a naturally sweet and portable snack that contains a variety of vitamins and minerals to keep your mind sharp during the school day.

Satisfying and nutritious snacks often contain more than one food group. Creating snacks with a combination of fruits, vegetables, whole grains and proteins such as string cheese with veggies, and a whole wheat pita with hummus, will help you keep going on busy days.
