

Director of Pedagogy

- Full-time, year-round, salaried position with attractive benefits
- AWSNA Accredited school with a beautiful 5-acre campus in North Davis
- Strong and experienced faculty dedicated to working out of Anthroposophy

The Davis Waldorf School (near Sacramento, CA) is seeking a full-time Director of Pedagogy & Programs (DPP). Our 34-year-old school serves circa 200 children from preschool – 8th grade and offers a full Waldorf program.

Position Responsibilities

The DPP works in partnership with the Director of Community Development and the Director of Finance as servant-leaders of the school. The DPP collaborates with the faculty and serves on various faculty committees to support the teachers' work. The DPP serves as a point person and helps parents follow the DWS Communication Policy.

The DPP also:

- Supports the teachers, board, and other community members in creation and fulfillment of the strategic plan
- Secures mentors and evaluators for class and subject teachers
- Helps teachers create fulfill their development plans with the Pedagogical Support Team
- Offers workshops to the community to develop their knowledge of Anthroposophy
- Oversees staffing and programming for the extended care, summer camp, parent-child programs
- Serves on the recruitment committee for teachers and assistants

Candidate Criteria

- Bachelor's degree and completion of Waldorf teacher training
- Extensive classroom experience in Waldorf schools, preferably in all eight grades
- Supervisory experience and service on a major Waldorf School administrative committee

Training in Kim John Payne's work, especially that of Social Inclusion, formal consensus training and familiarity with the Extra Lesson™ remedial program is highly desirable. We are accredited by and a full member school of AWSNA and WECAN.

Davis, California

Davis, is just two hours from Sierra skiing in Tahoe and one hour from the San Francisco Bay Area. It is a university town with a progressive, vigorous community noted for its small-town style, energy conservation, environmental programs, parks, tree preservation, red double-decker London buses, miles of bike paths and greenbelts, and the quality of its educational institutions.

To apply: please mail or email a cover letter, your resume, and contact information for three references to the Davis Waldorf School at: boardchair@daviswaldorf.org