

A NOTE FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL OFFICE

Dear Parents,

I hope this email finds you healthy and safe from the virus. I am writing to touch base with all of you.

By Tuesday, teachers will be sending your child their first online learning assignments. This is an exciting opportunity for both your child and our teachers to be innovative and do some amazing learning through the use of technology. Given that this is a new way of doing things for many of us we anticipate questions and a few obstacles. Please know we are doing our best to address these matters and that we are working hard to as possible.

It is important that you share issues (or successes!). Please email your child's teacher or myself with your comments.

I also wanted to remind you that the counselors are available should your family need some support in dealing with the current and uncertain situation. Ms. Hiromi's email address is hsawamura@aisgz.org and Mr. Frank's email address is fsambula@aisgz.org.

I also recorded a video for the students. Please click on this link and share my video with your child/ren. Teachers also have a copy of this video for sharing.

Lastly, as of Tuesday morning Guangzhou time, I will be in the US on the east coast. Should our time zones not match, please understand if it takes me a little longer to respond to your emails.

I can't wait until we can all see each other again!

Have a nice day,

Ms. Tatz
