

PANTO

There was huge excitement on the last day of Autumn Term, something was going on in the Sports Hall – oh, yes it was! The children and support staff were treated to a surprise pantomime of Lindfield Ella, written by our very own Mr Geddie.

Choseday Club children, together with the rest of the school, watched transfixed as the Ugly Sisters cavorted to persuade Prince Charming he should marry them. Fortunately with the support of “Dim Tim” and the “Airy Fairy” Prince Charming found his Lindfield Ella.

I've never been to a pantomime before. It was funny that the men were dressed up as the ugly sisters and I liked the Baby Shark song.

I've seen Cinderella before, but this was funnier because we knew the people in it and we had to shout, “Hi Tim, don't be dim!”

That panto really was absolutely brilliant. The children loved it as did we! Hilarious! What lucky children to have such “game for a laugh” teachers. I think you are all amazing!

I was with 3 friends after school and you should have heard their children telling them about it. They properly loved it!
