

Chargers of the Week

Andi Levitz – Basketball

Senior Guard, Andi Levitz was a blistering 9/17 from 3-point land in two CISAA contests this week. On Tuesday, Andi scored 16 points and hit four triples to lead the Chargers to a 55-39 victory over Charlotte Christian. Andi followed that up with a 5 for 8 performance from long distance on Friday as she recorded a team-high 19 points, leading the Chargers to a 70-31 win over Charlotte Latin. With the two wins this week, Andi led the Chargers to an undefeated 10-0 CISAA record and overall 21-6 record. Andi currently leads the entire state of North Carolina (public and private schools) with 87 made 3-pointers on the season and is shooting 42% from beyond the arc.

Nathaniel Insko – Wrestling

Sophomore Nathaniel Insko won his first CISAA Conference Wrestling Championship by outworking both of his opponents. Avenging earlier loses during the season to both opponents, Nathaniel pinned his semi-final opponent from Cannon School and in the final match defeated his Charlotte Latin opponent 5-0. He is now 26-11 on the season going into the NCISAA state championships this coming Friday and Saturday.

Congratulations !
