

South Garland ECHS Leadership Team Biographies

Steve Ewing – Mr. Ewing is in his third year as Principal of South Garland High School. He previously served as an administrator in Plano ISD, Fort Worth ISD, and Dallas ISD. He is committed to students, faculty, and parents of the South Garland community and is excited to see the early college launch in the fall of 2019.

Victoria Acevedo – Ms. Acevedo is in her 5th year as Assistant Principal at South Garland High School and has been an educator for 15 years, 11 years as an ELA and Spanish teacher. She is a huge advocate of AVID for every ECHS student. She will be the ECHS principal and is passionate about working with at-risk students, post-secondary academic and military preparation.

Jolynn Cash - Mrs. Cash has been a South Garland Colonel for twelve years as an English teacher, the English Instructional Coach, and now as the ECHS Coordinator. She is a life-long learner who has a bachelor's in English from SFASU, a master's in Education from UTA, and a master's in English from TAMUC, and she aspires to one day earn a PhD in Children's and Young Adult Literature. Mrs. Cash is passionate about mentoring students, using data to drive instruction and decisions, and encouraging everyone to choose integrity and build grit.

Tracy Hernandez - Mrs. Hernandez has been an educator for 7 years, 4 of them as a counselor. She is passionate about dual credit and seeing more students take advantage of the possibilities of earning college hours and associate degrees in high school.
