These processes will likely merge.
Change Initiatives: Three Story Lines

We aspire to create a school improvement planning process that meaningfully engages staff and SACS and where root cause is not simply a compliance step.

Change Initiatives: Three Story Lines

Network Structure and Strategic School Support Process

As we get better at root cause analysis, we will embed it more deeply in our S3M process.

Transition to new school improvement planning process

We aspire to create a school improvement planning process that meaningfully engages staff and SACS and where root cause is not simply a compliance step.

Strategic Plan

The initiatives in the strategic plan exist because we believe they will address the root causes of our achievement gap and support the problems of practice identified in the S3Ms.
