International School of Luxembourg: Update on CBA negotiations meeting with ONC

Yesterday, ISL took part in the first meeting with the unions and staff delegates at the ONC conciliation offices. Both parties were able to present their positions at the meeting and enter into first discussions. This first meeting has brought a necessary clarification on the offers and requests of both sides.

At the conclusion of the meeting and on invitation by the President of the ONC, both parties agreed to return to the negotiating table to discuss the respective salary scale proposals.

The next meeting has been set for February 27 at ISL.

The school's goal remains to invest in high-quality teaching while ensuring the future sustainability of the school for everyone in its community: students, staff and parents.
