HUSKYGRAM

Words From Our Principal

We want to thank everyone for our successful parent teacher conferences this week. Thank you for your continued support of our school.

It's safe to say winter arrived again this week. With all the additional cars dropping off students in the morning, we are grateful for everyone's patience as you waited in the various drop off lines. The courageous ladies monitoring and trying to keep order outside have mentioned the friendly smiles and waves and someone even offered gloves!

We appreciate all the parents who help us in the morning by following the Safety Before Convenience policy which makes the drop off run smoothly. We also appreciate the ladies who offered to go outside and help implement these new procedures. We can never thank them enough for doing all they can to keep our students safe.
