FAQ

What is ArtXtravaganza?

First and foremost, ArtXtravaganza is an art sale. Celebrating its 19th year, ArtXtravaganza is the school's largest fundraiser and is regarded as one of the premier art shows in the Southeast. This year's juried show features artworks by 68 juried artists – from paintings, handcrafted jewelry and pottery to glass art, sculpture and wood – at a variety of price points. ArtXtravaganza showcases the amazing range and diversity of artistic talent in the region and beyond, reinforces Webb's regard for arts education and appreciation, connects our community with local and regional artists, and supports the pursuit of creative expression.

Are your artists local?

We are proud to report that nearly 30 percent of our artists are from the Knoxville area. In addition, we are thrilled to host artists from other parts of Tennessee, as well as New York, Massachusetts, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama, and Florida.

What does "juried artist" mean?

ArtXtravaganza is a juried art show. Our 7 to 10-person jury (depending on the year) meets about three to four times during September to select a wide variety of artists that we feel would work well for our show. We strive to bring in new artists, while also inviting some previously participating artists. Our goal is to provide a good mix of mediums, styles and price points.

Who's the Featured Artist this year?

Encaustic artist Shane Miller is ArtXtravaganza's Featured Artist for 2020. Shane lives in Nashville, Tennessee. Read more about him at his website: www.shaneartistry.com

Where do I park?

Feel free to park in any designated parking spot on campus. Volunteers are asked to park anywhere on campus other than at the Lee Athletic Center, so that our patrons can have access to a spot near the event.

How much of my purchase is tax-deductible?

And will I receive a receipt for it?

Twenty-five percent of your purchase is tax-deductible since it goes directly to Webb School. You will need to keep the receipt that you receive at the sale for tax purposes; we cannot reproduce a receipt for you at a later date.

Can I park up front to load my purchased artwork if it's too large to carry? Will someone be available to help me carry it out to my car?

Yes, to both questions! There are two designated "loading spots" right up front at the entrance doors. And we'll have volunteers all weekend to help load your car.

Why does Webb sponsor this event every year?

ArtXtravaganza is a celebration of art and community. It is our biggest fundraiser, and we welcome guests from all over the area to come and support these talented artists, while also helping to support Webb's art department and other school programming.

Where does the money go?

Seventy-five percent of each purchase goes directly to the artist. The remaining 25 percent of each purchase helps support Webb's hallmark Artist-In-Residence Program, the school's visual and performing arts, and other programming. The Artist-In-Residence Program is a four-to-six-week on-campus teaching and learning experience that features nationally and internationally acclaimed artists. It provides Webb students with a glimpse into the real world of art by exposing them to professional artists, their work and their perspectives, and inspires students to explore their own creative abilities. In addition, a portion of this year's proceeds will help fund a supportive grant to Knoxville's Community School of the Arts.

What is the "Welcome Reception?"

To kick off our celebration of art and community, we host a Welcome Reception on Friday evening and provide our patrons with some hors d'oeuvres and a beverage before they head out to dinner. Please pick up a free drink ticket as you enter the door on Friday night, beginning at 6 p.m. No dress code – come as you are! Everyone is invited! Special thanks to Dead End BBQ for their very generous donation!

What's inside the Student Art Gallery?

The Student Art Gallery features works by Webb Lower, Middle and Upper School students. We are proud to showcase what our students are learning and creating through the school's arts programs. We will also have an "artist in action" booth, featuring our student artists at work.

Is the artwork inside the Student Art Gallery for sale?

We are asked that question a lot. The student artwork is for display only.

Are there any special events during the show?

We will host "GPA Hours" (GPA=GrandParents Association) for our grandparents on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Grandparents are invited to stop by for a free donut, a Chick-fil-A Chick-n-Mini, or a cup of coffee. The GPA station will be located right outside the Student Art Gallery.

How do I purchase an ArtXtravaganza gift card? How long are the gift cards valid?

Gift cards make great gifts and ArtXtravaganza gift cards are even better! Gift cards to ArtXtravaganza are available now through March 6, 2020 in $25 increments and are good for five years from the date of purchase. Stop by to see Rachel Williams in Webb's Development Office or Mary Newell in the Business Office to purchase your gift cards today! Both offices are in the Central Building near the Webb Bookstore.
