Income Information

Generally, individuals residing in the same house are one economic unit or household. For example:

- If you and your child are living with your parent(s) or other relatives, both your income and that of your parents (or other relatives) must be reported in the space provided.
- If you are living with your girlfriend/boyfriend/significant other as a household, you must report both of your incomes in the space below.

Previous year's gross household income (include income from ALL adults living in the household):

Enclose a copy of the previous year's tax returns and pay stubs from the past two (2) months of current income for all adults living in the household. All income must be reported and failure to return requested paperwork will prolong or void the scholarship procedure.
