LENOIR-RHYNE UNIVERSITY

Confirmation of 24 Hours of Course Work

If your undergraduate degree OR advanced degree (masters/doctorate) does not directly match your desired teaching content area, you must have at least 24 hours of course work completed in that content area to earn your North Carolina teaching license. Using the official transcripts that you sent to Lenoir-Rhyne University for enrollment into the Residency Licensure Only Pathway, identity the courses you believe support the 24 hours of course work completed in your desired content area.
