

Love kids? Be an Intern with Camp Imagineerz!

Egg-carton roller coasters. Tarzan impressions. Origami boxes. Children screaming your name from across a parking lot because they can't wait to see you. Sound good? If you are looking for a summer internship where you'll learn a ton while having a blast, Camp Imagineerz is the place for you.

What you'll learn..

- The Stanford Design Thinking Process
- How to teach elementary aged children effectively
- Developing a Growth Mindset
- Using theatre, design, and play to help children become creative and confident problem solvers

What you'll do...

- Collaborate with camp counselors to ensure every child leaves camp each day with a smile and a story to share.
- Make, act, play, and bond with campers.
- Do whatever else it takes (to make camp many fun, much epic)!

Requirements:

- Have a positive, enthusiastic personality
- Love working with kiddos
- Be available for training and at least two weeks

Join us!

We fill internship spots on a rolling basis. Apply now in only 10 minutes by...

1. Going to <http://imagineerz-learning.com/internship/>
2. Clicking "Apply Now" at the bottom of the page

This is a summer internship. It includes 2 days of training and between 2-6 weeks of camp during June and July at our Palo Alto, Mountain View, or Cupertino location. Exact dates and locations are available in the "Dates" section of our website.