The Academy of the Sacred Heart is pleased to present national speaker Kenneth B. Morris, Jr. Mr. Morris is a direct descendant of both Frederick Douglass and Booker T. Washington. He is the co-founder and president of Frederick Douglass Family Initiatives (FDFI), a non-profit organization dedicated to eradicating human trafficking through prevention education curricula in K-12 schools.

Special bicentennial edition copies of Frederick Douglass's first autobiography will be distributed for free to participating students. Adults may receive a copy for a nominal donation to FDFI while supplies last.

This event is free and open to the public, and recommended for ages 12 and up. Registration is encouraged for planning purposes, but walk-ins are welcome.
