Wrestler of the Week

Jake Wight

Week 3 – February 24-28

Jake is our week 3 Wrestler of the Week! If a Grizzly bear broke into CJH, Jake would probably jump on its back and try and pin it! Jake one of the most fearless and hardworking wrestlers on the team. This week he was tested with two challenging matches. The first match he won by decision and the second match was a real battle, Jake was getting out wrestled early in the match and was down 4 points. However, he didn't allow this to discourage him and he was able to catch his opponent in poor position allowing Jake to head throw him to his back. This pin was much needed and led to our narrow win over Bountiful Jr. Whenever the wrestlers are asked to find a new partner Jake always looks for the hardest challenge, even if it is someone 100 lbs heavier!

Congratulations Jake and Keep up the good work!
