WHAT IS A DEBENTURE?

Qualified applicants who hold HKIS debentures are given priority admission at HKIS. Please note debentures are not mandatory. A debenture alone does not guarantee admission to HKIS, as children must meet HKIS's entry requirements.

WHY DO WE OFFER DEBENTURES?

The sale of debentures at HKIS helps ensure we are able to offer exceptional programs and facilities for our students—for today and tomorrow.

DEBENTURES AT HKIS

HKIS OFFERS THREE KINDS OF DEBENTURES:

FAMILY

HK$3 million. A family may use this debenture to support multiple children from the same immediate family.

STANDARD CORPORATE

HK$3 million. Corporations may use this debenture to support one child's application.

COMPREHENSIVE CORPORATE

HK$5 million. Corporations may use this debenture to support multiple children from one family.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Debentures retain their value and can only be purchased through HKIS. They are not available on the secondary market.
- The number of debentures remains limited.
- Subject to the Committee of Management's sole discretion, an HKIS debenture is redeemable at par value after a minimum 15-year holding period.
- Only the Family Debenture can be transferred, and only to the purchaser's children or grandchildren.
- Holding a debenture places qualified applicants to the top of the waitpool.
- A debenture is not required for admission.
- Other terms and conditions may apply.
