Clifton High School is committed to child protection and safeguarding children and young people and expects all staff, visitors and volunteers to share this commitment.

Rationale and legal position

Research and experience have shown that separated parents can become particularly estranged, especially during the initial stages of the split. This is very often traumatic for those children concerned. Inevitably these personal family problems have an impact on the schools the children attend. This policy is an attempt to minimise this impact and clarify to all parties what is expected from separated parents and what can be expected from Clifton High School and its staff.

The definition of a parent for school purposes is much wider than for any other situation. The Education Act 1996 defines a parent as

- All-natural parents, including those that are not married
- Any person who has parental responsibility but is not a natural parent e.g. a legally appointed guardian or the Local Authority named in a Care Order
- Any person who has care of a child i.e. a person with whom the child resides and who looks after the child irrespective of the relationship

Parents as defined above are entitled to share in the decisions that are made about their child and to be treated equally by schools. These entitlements include

- Completion of Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) and School based questionnaires
- Participate in any exclusion procedure
- Attend parent meetings and school events
- Have access to School records and receive copies of School reports, newsletters, invitations to School events, school photographs relating to their child and information about educational visits.

The Council of Governors recognise that while the parents of some pupils may be separated or divorced, they are entitled to the above and this entitlement cannot be restricted without a specific court order. The School does not have the power to act on the request of one parent to restrict another.

Information provided to the School

The School recognises that, while the parents of some pupils may be divorced or separated, both have a right to be informed of, and involved in, their child's/children's education.

The information provided to the School when each pupil is admitted detailing whether both parents have parental responsibility for the pupil will be presumed to be correct unless a court order or original birth certificate proving otherwise is provided to the School. Similarly, the information provided on all addresses where the child resides will be presumed to be correct unless a court order proving otherwise is provided to the School.

It is the responsibility of the parents to inform the School when there is a change in the family's circumstances. Clifton High School should be kept up to date with contact details and arrangements for collecting their child/children including in emergencies. Two emergency contacts should be given. This also includes changes in financial arrangements and changes to court orders.

Court Orders

A copy of any existing court order should be provided to the School on admission. The School will follow the court order fully and will not allow any parent to overrule its contents. If there is a change in the court order, the School should be given a copy straight away so that it can be followed.

Communication with Parents

Clifton High School wishes to promote the best interests of the pupils, working in partnership with both parents, unless directed by a court order. If the School is not informed of such action, neither parent will have rights superior to the other.

Clifton High School expects that all parents, whatever the nature of their separation, will do all they can to communicate with each other and share information from and for the School, for the benefit of their child/children. However, if this may cause difficulty and have a negative effect on the pupil and their learning, letters and emails can be sent to both parents if this is agreed by both parents and the School together. This includes information on all the main events within School, including productions, sports days, parents' evenings, educational visits, etc. Some information is given out directly to the pupil and this will not be duplicated but it is additionally available through the Parent Bulletin, which is sent out via email every Friday, or through the school website.

Clifton High School expects that parents should liaise and communicate directly with each other in matters such as the ordering of school photographs, tickets for performances and other instances.

Parents are expected to share with each other as and when appropriate, items given directly to a pupil such as revision lists for examinations, textbooks and other educational resources.

All parents are recommended to regularly use the Clifton High School website. As from September 2018, parents will have online access to Insight allowing parents to individually view additional information regarding their child's education at Clifton High School.

Meetings with staff

During the course of the year it may be necessary for meetings to be held with parents relating to their child/children. Both parents will always be invited to attend such meetings. The school will only consider separate appointments to discuss the same information if there is a court order in place restricting parents attending the same appointment.

Parents' evenings

Clifton High School will only produce one set of parents' evening appointments for each individual pupil, where all parents are welcome. We expect parents to communicate with each other regarding these arrangements and appointment times issued to both parents.

For Nursery to Year 6 parents, the School will arrange separate appointments if there is a court order in place restricting parents attending together and where the school has agreed to hold separate appointments due to known special circumstances.

In Years 7 - 11, the School will arrange separate appointments only if there is a court order in place restricting parents attending together.

Progress reports

Both parents have the right to receive progress reports of their child/children. If the parents are separated or divorced, progress reports will be sent to both the parents. The exception to this will be if a court order states that a parent has sole custody.

The School will send copies of the progress reports to the non-custodial parent only if the custodial parent submits a written request for the School to do so.

Pupil records

Both parents have the right to access the records of their child/children. The exception to this will be if a court order states that a parent has sole custody.

Absences from school

The parent with whom the child is residing should notify the school, by 8.30 am that day, of the pupils' absence. The school will not notify the other parent of the absence as it expects the parent who has contacted the School to do so as necessary.

If one parent seeks to remove a pupil from school, and the other parent with responsibility for the pupil has not consented, the Head of School will meet with the parent seeking to remove the pupil. In extreme circumstances if there is a belief that a possible abduction of the child may occur or if the parent is disruptive, the police will be notified immediately.

On-going disagreements between parents

In the event that the parents are unable to agree with one another on decisions regarding their child's educational programme, including, but not limited to, set placement, participation in extra-curricular activities, future schooling and consent to evaluation and services, the School will arrange a meeting with both parents (either together or separately) to attempt to resolve the situation and if it cannot be resolved the child's future at the School will need to be addressed.

In the event of a breakdown of a relationship

The School acknowledges that relationships can break down suddenly or traumatically, even for a temporary period. Clifton High School's position is not to attribute blame but to support the pupil/pupils and to ensure their safety. If there is an emergency and you have safety concerns for your child, please contact the Designated Safeguarding Lead immediately.

In the first instance, the School requests that at least one parent contacts their child's Form Tutor or Class Teacher to inform the School if a relationship breaks down. Clifton High School will need to have written confirmation and may need to meet with both parents to discuss the new arrangements for the care of their child/children. To provide this information in writing, please complete the form in Appendix A and return to school signed by all those with parental responsibility.
