

Wingate University Position Description

Position Title: Assistant Professor of Psychology

Wingate, a comprehensive, independent and growing university, serves more than 3,600 students in North Carolina. Founded in 1896, the University offers 35 undergraduate majors as well as graduate and professional programs. Wingate is home to the Cannon College of Arts and Sciences; the Levine College of Health Sciences; the Byrum School of Business; and the College of Professional Studies, which includes the Thayer School of Education and the School of Sport Sciences. Wingate blends in-class exploration with out-of-class application to deliver an uncommon and life-changing educational experience. Nearly one-in-five Wingate undergraduate students is preparing to be a pharmacist, physician assistant, physical therapist, occupational therapist or nurse, and 65 percent of graduate students are enrolled in health sciences. Wingate offers six master's degree programs and four doctoral degree programs. Students are supported by more than 325 endowed scholarships. The University's motto is "Faith, Knowledge, Service." Wingate University's Department of Psychology seeks a candidate with strong interest and ability in undergraduate teaching for a full-time, security-track position as an Assistant Professor with a focus in clinical, counseling psychology, or mental health counseling. Candidates should have a Ph.D. in Clinical, Counseling Psychology, or Mental Health Counseling and a record of undergraduate teaching experience. Evidence of scholarly potential is also preferred. Recent graduates and ABD applicants are encouraged to apply. The successful candidate will demonstrate the ability to balance excellence in teaching 4 courses (12 credit hours) per semester with other responsibilities. Courses will include general psychology, counseling courses, and assessment; other courses will be determined by the department's needs and appointee's specialties. Service responsibilities will include student advising and mentoring, departmental service, and committee service under Wingate University's governance structure.

Start date would be August 17, 2020 (for fall semester) or January 4th, 2021 (for spring semester).

Primary Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach general psychology

- Teach advanced psychology elective courses in counseling, psychopathologies, psychotherapy, and assessment among others
- Develop courses in the appointee's specialty area
- Advising and mentoring undergraduate students

Minimum Requirements:

- Earned PhD in Counseling or Clinical Psychology, Mental Health Counseling or a related field.
- Experience teaching counseling courses at the undergraduate level.
- Ability to teaching assessment, counseling theories, techniques, multicultural counseling, and group counseling is preferred.
- Experience with face-to-face delivery of courses is preferred.
- Evidence of scholarly promise

Salaries at Wingate are competitive and commensurate with experience.

Please submit a cover letter, CV, teaching statement, and names of three references. Please include in the teaching statement titles and brief descriptions for at least two courses that you could offer that would be of interest to students as electives for Psychology majors/minors. Also include in your teaching statement or cover letter, your experience working with student populations and pedagogical strategies to foster student success.

The search committee will begin its formal review of candidates immediately and will continue its review until July 1, 2020. Send all documents in one .pdf file to Ms. Candy Long at the following email: clong@wingate.edu
