Friends All:

As we are all concerned about the news regarding COVID-19, I want to make you aware of relevant late-breaking information which we will continue to curate on a regular basis. It will be housed on our website, so follow this link to access it and to stay informed. We will email you regarding all updates, as information on the website changes. Let us hold one another in prayer in these days and weeks ahead, and let us also pray for those countless people struggling to bring comfort to those who are suffering.
