To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Request for Proposal (RFP) YP2020-CN01 Cancellation

Dear Bidders,

As concerns over COVID-19 (coronavirus) mount across the Houston area, YES Prep has been closely monitoring the rapidly changing situation. YES Prep has decided to close our schools tomorrow, Friday March 13. Due to several unforeseen situations, YES Prep has determined that it would be in its best interest to cancel the Request for Proposal (RFP) YP2020-CN01 and reject all proposals.

Thank you to all interested offerors for your interest in our business and your patience throughout this unprecedented period of time.

If you have any outstanding questions, please email ChildNutrition@yesprep.org
