

First Grade Spanish - 5 Day Plan - March 2020

¡Hola! Hi first graders! These activities can be done in one day or in small chunks over 5 days. Begin with one or more of the songs Hola buenos días or Las vocales. Then listen to Los animales miran los objetos (The animals look at the objects) to prepare for the activity. I know you love this song! Your adult can pause each frame of the video to practice the vocabulary. Also the song's lyrics are at the end of this document.

Necessary Materials:

Tic Tac Toe template attached, colored pencils, markers or crayons, 9 beans or small pieces of paper.

Songs: Hola buenos días
Las vocales aprendes tú
Los animales miran los objetos

Vocabulary - animales, objetos, acciones - animals, objects, actions

Animales - animals: gato (cat), llama - pronounced like yama (llama), gorila (gorilla), picaflor (hummingbird), oso panda (panda bear), dragón (dragon), caracol (snail), avestruz (ostrich)

Objetos - objects: zapato (shoe), cama (bed), mochila (backpack), flor (flower), bufanda (scarf), pantalón (pants), sol (sun), autobús (bus)

Acciones - actions: mira (looks at), camina (walks), vuela (flies), sube (climbs), corre (runs), come (eats), tiene (has)

Activities:

1. Use the Tic Tac Toe template and color in each of the 9 squares an animal or object (from the vocabulary list) that your adult says in Spanish. You can choose which square to use.
2. Play Tic Tac Toe to get 3 in a row- horizontal, vertical or diagonal. After your adult says an animal or object (gato - cat or mochila - backpack) you place a frijol (bean) or piece of paper on the animal or object. Keep playing until you win!

Extension Activities:

- Say : Yo lo tengo - I have it - when placing the bean on the animal or object.
- Act out the animals doing the actions that your adult says in Spanish or models for you to mimic/copy.
 - El picaflor vuela. (The hummingbird flies.)
 - El oso panda sube el árbol. (The panda bear climbs the tree.)
 - El gato corre. (The cat runs.)
 - El gorila tiene una mochila. (The gorilla has a backpack.)
 - La llama mira la cama. (The llama looks at the bed.)
